DRAMA

The 1975-1976 theater season began with the melodramatic play "The Drunkard" in November. "The Drunkard" is the classic log-cabin era play with a villain, a hero, and of course, a heroine. In the play the villain (Squire Cribbs) tries to destroy the name of the hero and gain ownership of the heroine's land.

In December the National Theatre Company came to Gordon with its Bicentennial production "Declaration". The Northwest End also produced the play "Gammer Gurton's Needle" during the Christmas season.

"Everyman", a morality play, was produced in the Gordon Tech Chapel in April during the lenten season.

For their final production of the year The Northwest End staged "Zortch II", a musical revue. Scenes and musical numbers from past Gordon plays such as "West Side Story", "Paint Your Wagon", "Guys and Dolls", "Oliver" and others were performed.

MUSIC

Music students at Gordon Tech have the opportunity to participate in a rather far-reaching and adventurous program. There are really four bands at Gordon: the beginners band, the Varsity Band, the Concert and Marching Bands, and the Jazz Band. There is also a student chorus. Freshmen students who are not of proven ability are enrolled in the beginners band which feeds the other three bands. A student may move to any one of these when he has reached the level of proficiency which indicates that he can handle more difficult work. The varsity Band has its own concerts. The Concert Band performs at the Spring and Winter Concerts, at Graduation and other solemn occasions. They also perform as the Marching Band at all home football games and in Community parades. The bands also provide music for home basketball games, pep rallies and special assemblies. This year the Music Department held an "Ensemble Night" on which sections of the band performed together.

JAZZ BAND

The Gordon Tech Jazz Band is a favorite with a large percentage of the students. The Jazz Band tours many grammar schools during the year to aid the school and, of course, the band is recruiting. It is also featured at each of the major concerts: The Winter Concert and the Spring Concert. This year there was a special Jazz Night at Gordon. "And All That Jazz" was organized by our Music Department and involved numerous Jazz Bands for high schools in the Chicago area. They all participated in a six-hour marathon of Jazz which attracted a large, lively, and enthusiastic audience.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

During the 1975-1976 school year some new clubs were formed and other "old veterans" continued to grow and expand. The more than thirty-eight clubs and organizations at GT offer the interested student many opportunities to develop his interests whether they be hobbies, cultural pursuits, artistic endeavors, or sporting competition.

The Art Club and Mural Group have been particularly active this year. At the end of last year the group decided on doing the mural in the cafeteria which greeting us all on our return to school in September. The theme of the history of American Music seemed attractive to all involved. The execution of the mural was a summer-long project involving GT students in the Art Club and students who enrolled in the Mural Painting course during the summer session. There was a day and night mad rush during orientation week to finish the project.

The mural represents a cross section of American music from early rock and roll through country, blues, soft rock, and acid rock. The illustrations were taken mostly from photographs and the works of other artists and reproduced to scale on the cafeteria walls. The color scheme and background designs were done by the students and their moderator, Ms. Kozan.

project. The Art Club also had two other adventurous projects during the year: a series of mini-course on such topics as silk-screening and animation and the Annual Art Fair in May. Many students enrolled in the courses and the Art Fair was well attended. Many students offered displays and sold their works to spectators.

The Archery Club, new this year, was very popular. Tom Klein organized this club under the moderatorship of Mr. Bob Brady. All of the "Bowhunters" are also members of the Fred Bear Sports Club which enables them to compete in three tournaments: the Michigan Round, the Canadian Round, and the Alaskan Round. In the Michigan Round four members of the Gordon Tech club placed for awards. The club had also had a lot of outside help from Harry T. Przekop and Jim Chmielewski. Mr. Przekop is their hunting advisor and is a member of the professional Bowhunters Society. Jim is a taxidermist who will prepare anything that a club member shoots for display purposes.

The Bike Club held its first bike hike at the end of October. The weather was terribly cold and there were high winds. The bikers, led by Mr. Lou Prete who sponsors this activity, were not bothered by the adverse conditions. Only one member of the club had to drop out of the hike and that was because of bike failure. newly fallen snow. This was a cross country-race; the pictures on these pages testify to the fact that this actually happened. It was rumored that after the race everyone involved stopped at a mental institution to recover.

One of the "old Veteran" clubs at Gordon is the Chess Club. Many people believe that these members just play chess against one another but that is not the case. There is a league of chess clubs throughout the Catholic High Schools in Chicago and Gordon has long participated in interscholastic play. There is ample opportunity for the beginner and the advanced player in the chess club and interested students who would like to explore this game of strategy are encouraged to attend a meeting.

The Gordon Tech Hockey Club ended up another fine season under the direction of Coach Tom Gayne. The opening of the McFetridge Sports Center in California Park adjacent to the school helped the Club immensely. Regular practice sessions were held in the early morning and members were only a stone's throw from their first classes. In the past hockey practice had to be arranged at remote rinks at ridiculous times often in the middle of the night. The team had a respectable showing in the Great Northern Hockey League. An exhibition game was played against the "Faculty Flyers" in the McFetridge Center. Brother Frank scored a "hat trick" for the faculty team but the student team could not be beaten. The money collected from that game is used by the club for expenses: rink rental in particular. It is hoped that Gordon will be able to use the McFetridge arena on a regular basis for inter-scholastic play. Details on this have to be worked out with the Park District.

The Math club consists of a number of students whose career interests are geared toward math and science. The club sponsors math contests both for students here at GT and against other schools. The club is under the direction of Mr. Mike Norek.

The Science Club under the direction of Fr. Tom Kubik, C.R. is particularly active. Together with the Science Department they sponsor the annual Science Fair. This year's fair produced three winners at the Northeastern Illinois Science Association in conjunction with the Illinois Junior Academy of Science. The fair held annually at the Museum of Science and Industry gives students who did well in their own school's competition the chance to compete on a city-wide basis. Two of Gordon's three winners went on the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana to attend the 49th annual state-wide Science Fair. Freshman Scott Drnek received an outstanding award while seniors Andy Dobrzeniecki and Dave Degeneffe received a first place award for their chemistry project.

They now have an enrollment of over twenty-three students and have two moderators: Mr. Robert Derendal and Mr. Tim Courtney. The table games that are played are baseball and football; there is a debate about bringing in hockey and basketball. The games all involve a combination of luck and strategy. The strat-o-matic games are based on the statistical averages of players in their respective major sports. Each participant is a manager who decided who will play what positions. The club has many members who also participate in school sporting events and find that playing the odds at the table games makes them better "managers" and "coaches" than they had been before.

In the past few years tennis enthusiasts at Gordon have asked for an official club. Last year Mr. Dave Moran and Fr. John Nowak organized a team which was taken over this year by Coach Jim Proffitt. Once again the presence of the McFetridge Sports Complex is an asset to activities at Gordon. Coach Proffitt organized practice sessions and a few matches against other teams from area schools. After a shaky start the season moved along well. The team will suffer from the loss of graduating seniors but it is hoped that the underclassmen will be able to supply the needed power.

It is possible that in the future both tennis and hockey will fall under the jurisdiction of the athletic director and will become regular team sports.

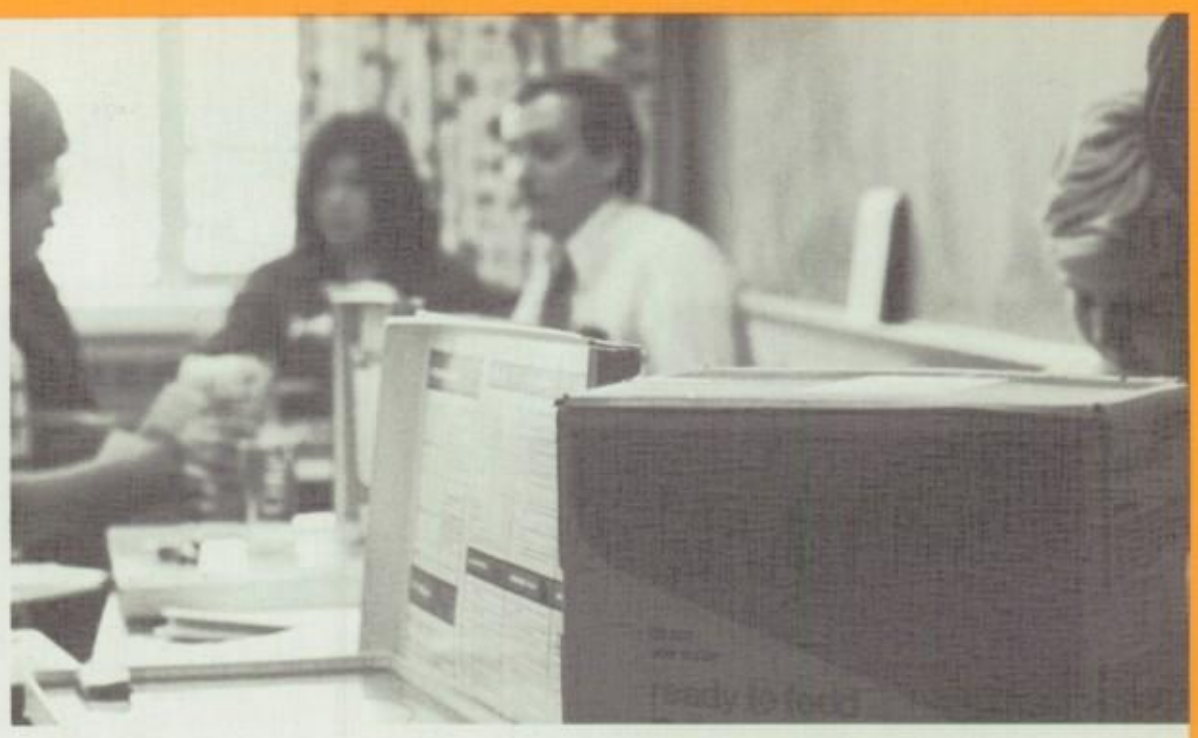
Tennis Program Expands

- a faculty member cannot start a club only a group of students are able to do that. Any group of students who are interested in forming a new club are encouraged to make an attempt to do so. They should inform the Director of Student Activities of their wishes. He will help them try to find a moderator and then they will be on their way. All new clubs are put on a probationary status by the Student Council before they are chartered. After a club is chartered it is considered to be a part of the extra-curricular program at Gordon. A program which is student centered.



Regular meetings of the TGC were held in classrooms at the end of the 400 corridor.

HOMECOMING

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17

"Glorybound" was the theme of this year's Homecoming activities. A whole week of functions including a tie day, a grub day, and a cake-eating contest reached its high point with the Homecoming Dance. The dance was held on Friday night, October 17, 1975 in the gymnasium. Music was provided by "Catch". Two hundred couples were in attendance to enjoy the evening and to see Stacy Zuhr crowned as the Gordon Tech Homecoming Queen.

On Sunday the Homecoming Parade stepped off from the parking lot of Cragin Savings down Fullerton Avenue to the Hansen Stadium. Trophies were awarded for the best car and best float to senior Frank Sposito and the Notre Dame N.H.S. respectively.

Unfortunately our team was defeated by Loyola with a score of 22-0 which brought a note of sadness into the otherwise festive events of the week.

Stacy Zuhr a student at Good Counsel High School was named the 1975 Homecoming Queen. Her escort for the dance is Gordon senior Ed Rottinger.

CROSS-COUNTRY
SOCCER

The Fall Sports' athlete is one of dedication and conditioning. Both are needed if a team expects to produce a successful season.

A dedicated athlete starts the season months before the first competition begins. Weightlifting, running, and working out fill the athlete's free time.

He also must be ready to play in any type of weather. The season starts in sweltering heat and humidity and ends in sub-zero temperatures and snow. In between, sharp temperature changes and unseasonable weather sets in. The teams that best adapts to the weather usually won.

These factors and others make the fall Athlete unique.

FOOTBALL

Head Football Coach Tom Winiecki has been coaching the football team for nine years. In that time, his teams have compiled a 55-38 record. Last year, for the first time in GT's twenty-two year football history, his team won the Catholic League. They broke just about every record there was to break. This year's team had a legacy to follow.

Following the last game of the '74 season, the Juniors and Sophomores went right to work. They had to forget about the glory they had witnessed throughout the season and start some dreams of their own.

There were a lot of open jobs to be filled. Only eight major letter winners were returning. Players were working harder than ever to earn starting jobs. The weightliting room started to fill up.

Agilities, an agonizing workout dreaded by all, started in January. If you ever came early in the morning in passing the gym balcony, you would have seen a group of guys running on all fours, hopping back and forth, and running back and forth. You really don't know how out of shape you've gotten. There are only seven months until the first workout with equipment.

The Defense lines up for a play in the Loyola Game.

Summer finally arrived. Relief to the students, more work for the players. Coming to Gordon on hot summer days to lift in the heat was not enjoyable, but everyone knew it had to be done.

On August eighth, the team came in for their physicals. Two doctors got through the group in a matter of minutes. A few days later equipment was passed out. Doubles were here. For two straight weeks the team suffered through two practices a day. Blisters and stiff muscles settled in. Just four weeks until the first game. Power training started early in doubles. PT is a set of calisthenics and non-stop running. PT was reintroduced last year and is still the most hated part of practice.

As a JV team they were 3-1. All three wins came over Catholic League teams and the one loss was non-conference. But it was going to be different this year; Coach Winiecki was changing the offense. Steve Dietz had led last year's dropback passing attack with great efficiency. He broke records by the dozen. That style offense calls for the quarterback not to run. Steve Dietz couldn't run; his knees wouldn't permit it. Such was not the case with his backup, Tim McAvoy.

This year the offense was turned over to McAvoy. Tim is strong and capable of running with consistent success. Tim was informed at the end of '74 that the offense would be changed to the option.

Everyone started drilling for the roll out offense during doubles. It's designed so Mac could throw to his receivers or he could run up the field if they were covered. This was a brand new offense to everybody; it would take extra work to perfect it.

There were only a few days left until the first game of the season. This year's opener was a conference game against St. Laurence, last year's city champs. The season could be made or broken on the first day. The intensity of the upcoming game was growing each day; we were going to be ready.

Game time. The game turned out to be a defensive struggle. St. Laurence scored on a miscovered 65 yd. touchdown pass and a 12 yd. run following a blocked punt. The final score, 14-0. The offense sputtered during the game. Receivers Kevin Dietz and Jim Benduha couldn't get open and Mac was forced continuously to run into the waiting grasp of the Viking defense.

The team assembled for practice Tuesday. They had to forget Sunday and get ready for De LaSalle. The offense would have to get going. The defense was secure, anchored by Pat Farrell and co-captains Mike Cukierski and Steve Otis. Come Sunday the Rams had to be ready.

Against De LaSalle, the Rams ran the ball down the Meteors throats. Chris Williams, Mike Stauffer, and Mac combined for 248 yards. The defense was impregnable. Mac got one TD and tossed one to Stauffer for the other score. The final: 14-0.

That first win felt good. The team started to yell together. Next week the Rams were to play against Mendel.

The offense was gaining poise and confidence every day, but the attack seemed to have suffered a disheartening blow. Mac hurt his shoulder during the De LaSalle game and during the week Wally West, the regular starting safety, was running the offense.

When Sunday came, Coach Winiecki decided to go with Mac. He didn't run as fast as usual due to the injury, but he didn't have to. Stauffer rushed for 119 yds. in twenty-two carries. Gaining 217 yards on the ground and 142 in the air, the Rams had progressed. Leo was a tough defensive team and beating them would be no easy task.

The game turned out to be low scoring as everyone figured. Leo's only score came following John Curkov's interception at the 1 yd. line. On third down from the one, Mac handed off to Stauff, but he never made it out of the end zone. Leo was awarded a safety and led 2-0. That score held up until the second half. After Bob Holley recovered a short kick-off, the Rams finally put together a drive. A few key passes mixed in with the running plays put the ball on the eleven yard line. Stopped on fourth down, Ed Valenzano put the tee at the eighteen to attempt a field goal. The kick cleared the crossbar by less than a foot, but it was good and the Rams led 3-2.

The Rams added an insurance goal after Ron Pohl recovered a fumble. Mac drove in for the final yard to make the score 10-2, the way it ended.

They had beaten a proven team; they were on the move now. In practice spirits were high. There was still a change for state. This week's game would be their non-conference game against Elk Grove.

Versus Elk Grove, the Rams put together a brilliant display of offense and defense beating them 21-7. The Rams took advantage of Elk Grove's mistakes. For example, Pat Farrell's interception at the 28 yard line. Four plays later the Rams were in the end zone. Elk Grove's score came after the game was decided, when they recovered a fumbled punt at the 34 yard line.

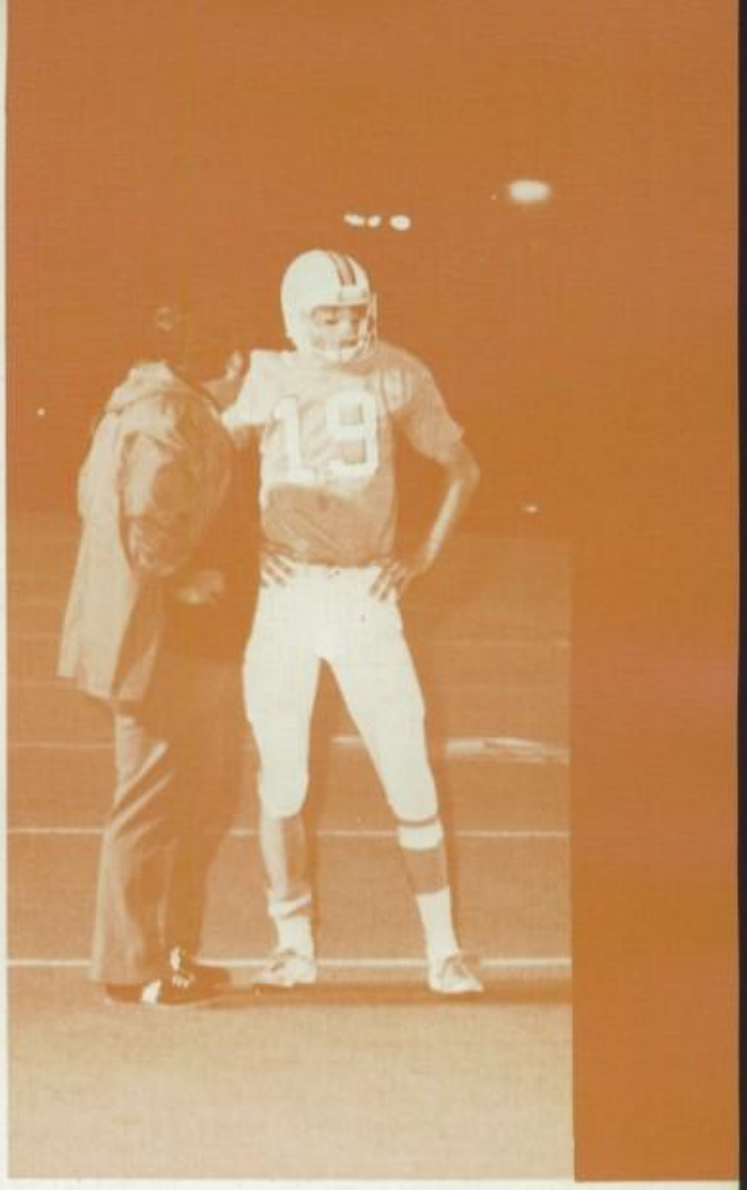
With a 3-1 league record, we were tied for first with Loyola, Brother Rice, Mount Carmel, and St. Rita. Two of the next three games were against Loyola and Brother Rice; the state qualifiers could well be decided then. Two weeks from now the Rams were to play Loyola; that game was scheduled to be Homecoming and the team was looking forward to that.

Perhaps the team had looked too far. Weber shocked the Rams 28-0. The team was dead flat before and during the game, there was no enthusiasm. Weber scored on a long pass following a penalty which kept their drive alive. Then they returned two interceptions for touchdowns. The final TD followed another interception. Despite the big margin of the score, the statistics were very close, in fact, the Rams led in most of the categories.

In practice, the first few days were marred by the memory of Sunday but as the week grew on the players were psyched up for Sunday's match up: this was HOMECOMING. Two years ago Loyola beat Gordon at our Homecoming 6-0 in overtime, the first overtime in Catholic League history. Last year at Loyola's Homecoming the Rams stomped on Loyola 20-3. Loyola was currently tied for first place with a good shot for state qualification.

Homecoming fell on a rainy overcast day. Following the opening game ceremonies, the game was started. On the Rams first possession they drove to the eleven, sixty-one yards in ten plays. The eleventh play started the trouble. Stauff dropped his next hand off and Loyola recovered. When the Rams got the ball back they drove to the 33. Stauff once again fumbled the ball and Loyola recovered, Once again the defense held and the Rams got the ball back. This time Chris Williams fumbled at the 45.

Loyla finally took advantage of a mistake. A fifty-four yard drive made it 7-0 and the half ended that way. Three long drives by the Rams had totaled zilch on the scoreboard. We were beating ourselves; we were too emotionally high to let this one get away on our own mistakes.



Coach Winiecki tells McAvoy what to do with :20 seconds remaining in the half against De LaSalle.

Loyola scored right away in the second half to take the commanding lead of 14-0. But the Rams weren't going to die. Mac finally broke the end zone hex with a three yard run, but Valenzano missed the extra point leaving the Rams down 14-6. With 1:28 left Mac tossed an eight yard pass to Steve Otis who made a circus catch in the end zone to put the Rams within 2. The option with Mac keeping was the call for a 2-point conversion. A lunging dive by Mac tied the game and made it the second overtime in three years against Loyola.

In overtime the ball is placed at the ten and each team gets four tries to score. The Rams went first. An eight yard TD run by Williams on third down put the Rams in the lead 20-14. Mac was stopped on the 2 point conversion attempt keeping the lead at 6.

Now it was Loyola's turn. On the six Loyola scored on a pass to a wide open receiver in the end zone. It was tied again, but Loyola had a chance to break the tie with the extra point kick. When the ball was snapped it went through the holder's hands and bounced on the ground. For a moment there was a glitter of hope. But the ball took a perfect bounce into the holder's arms. With all men charging it was easy for the holder to scoot around the end for the winning points making the final 22-20.

It would be tough to forget about that one. They had put together a great offensive showing early and but for a few fumbles would have blown Loyola out quick. We had the game but it slipped through our fingers. There was still a chance for the Catholic League playoffs. To get there we would have to beat both Brother Rice and Fenwick in the next two games.

Pohl and West lead Benduha on a kickoff return.

Coach Winiecki and co-Captains Steve Otis and Mike Cukierski exit the locker room through the victory tunnel after half-time.

Rice in the heat of the playoff race was ready for this game. Early in the game Mac sprained his ankle. That left Wally West in charge of the offense. The Rams scored on a pass from West to Steve Otis. But it was too little too late. The Rams were ripped from any post-season play with a crushing 27-7 defeat. Mentally the Rams weren't ready for that and Brother Rice was. And that tells the story.

Now came the game with Fenwick. This one was for the seniors and the difference between 6th and 7th place. Thus far Fenwick was winless and the Rams intended to keep it that way. West would be the quarterback for the Rams.

Fenwick scored first in the game and got the 2-point conversion to lead 8-0. The Rams couldn't get anything going until the second half. Farrell, subbing for Williams at fullback, made a seven yard touchdown run to cap the first successful drive of the day. West got the 2-point conversion on a rollout to tie the game.

West started to pick apart the Fenwick defense with pin point passes, the clincher was a 26 yd. TD pass to Otis. A spectacular catch by Dietz for the conversion put the Rams on top to stay, 16-8.

The season was filled with many disappointments, the biggest being the failure to get into the playoffs. But, on the other hand, there were individuals who consistently stood out. On defense, West was in coach Winieki's words, "the perfect athlete." Farrell and Cukierski anchored the linebacking spots while Steve Otis was an All-State Honorable Mention at end. Jeff Micek and Dan Plantz both played just one year and both far exceeded expectations. Curkov, Pohl, and Jim Shroeder were all hard hitters. This defense limited four opponents to a combined total of 15 points in a four game win streak. This was the core of the team.

In a learning year on offense, many put in excellent moments but as a unit they were inconsistent. The offensive line consisting of Mark Ciasto, Mike Calhoun, Dan Sadowski, Bob Holley, Bato Prostran, Cukierski, and Otis did a good unheralded job. At receivers, Dietz and Benduha played excellently showing that good receivers, Dietz and Benduha played excellently showing that good receivers can block as well as catching passes. The backfield of Stauffer, Williams, and McAvoy had their bright spots throughout the season.

Cross-Country

Over the past few years, the Cross Country Team had been hit by hard times. Things started looking up when Coach Doug Berger was put in charge. His first year, the team slumped to 9th in the Catholic League. The next season, the Varsity finished 4th without one senior on the squad. The whole team returned for the '75 season.

In the beginning it didn't seem like any normal season was in store for the Gordon Tech "Runnin' Rams". This year was going to be different. The Rams were good and they knew it and they were going to do something about it. It was going to be "THE YEAR OF THE RAM" in Cross Country.

The Rams worked hard for their successes. It started months earlier. Immediately after track season ended, preparation for Cross Country began. Over the summer, the harriers ran thousands of miles alone or with teammates. The team met several times during the summer for practice to see if improvement was being shown. Despite the injuries, "bad days", sacrificing of free time and special diets, the men strove on.

The 1975 Cross Country season was extremely successful "The team did well this year," commented head coach Doug Berger, in his third year at the helm. Coach Berger, assistant coaches Mike Martarano, Dennis Kleczkowski, and moderator Father Don Zinn provided the leadership necessary in guiding the championship team.

And they're off!

The RAM's first test was against powerful suburban teams at Maine East. Running without a full team, the RAMS put on a fine show. From then on they were almost unstoppable. In Catholic League meets, the "Runnin' RAMS" were brilliant. Both the Frosh-Soph and Varsity were defeated only once each- both of these times they were competing without their full squad.

The RAMS really came into their own in the big invitationals. Competing against the area's top teams, the RAMS made a name for themselves.

At the Lane-Tech Invitational, fifteen teams were being represented. In a good race, the Frosh-Soph team won the crown, while the Varsity took a close second, unable to unseat Lane.

One week later, the gigantic Niles West Invite stood in the way. This important meet housed fifty-three teams. Probably the most important regular meet, the RAMS would have to perform here. And perform they did. An all-round good team effort saw the Frosh-Soph RAMS place second and the Varsity "Runnin' RAMS" place first. The "Runnin' RAMS" were now a team to beat.

The team did well in the remaining invitationals also, adding momentum as they did so. The Niles East, Wright and York invitationals all saw the RAMS win or place highly on both the Frosh-Soph as well as the Varsity levels.

Following the "Senior Day" victory at Hanson Park over Fenwick, Loyola, and Mendel, the "Runnin' RAMS" began to prepare for the state playoffs. They knew they were now a State-ranked team, a first in Gordon Cross-Country history and they also knew they could go down-state. The RAMS intended to do the job in the District meet. That freezing day saw the Gordon Tech "Runnin' RAMS" place second, qualifying for the sectionals.

Ah yes, the Sectionals. The same section which Coach Berger termed the ". . . toughest in the State". The team competed against the toughest of competition. It was a hard race and the RAMS came 4 points from going downstate. Coach Berger feels we had a team good enough to run downstate, but two of the runners did not do as well as expected, thereby eliminating the RAMS. But team leaders Jim Flannery and John Olszewski both placed in the top ten, allowing them to run downstate. The state run, the brightest part of the season from Coach Berger's standpoint, saw Flannery and Olszewski compete well. Now it was Catholic League.

The Rams had Championship fever for weeks. They failed to make it downstate, but now it was the Catholic League Championships to contend with. In one of the most convincing victories in recent years, the RAMS captured the Catholic League title for the first time since 1969, led by Defending Catholic Champion Jim Flannery. The RAMS failed to uphold their Sophomore title, or to win the Frosh division. Yet the Championship was icing on the cake-a good ending to a successful season. The team celebrated in a rowdy but team-like manner, by giving Coach Martarano a mud-bath. Back at school, Coaches Berger and Kleczkowski, as well as Fr. Zinn and this reporter "somehow" took untimely showers. The coaching staff was all wet, something some of the runners might have thought they were before they hit the shower room.

The RAMS Varsity squad is a young team, so most of the runners will be returning next year. As usual, they were led by Jim Flannery, The Catholic League Champion and League Champion and League MVP-Tony Lawless Winner, who sported a three-mile time of 14.37, a Montrose Harbor record. The undisputed leader of the team had an exceptional season. He was followed by "The Orange Tornado" John Olszewski, George Stasinos, Ernie Lukacs, and Mark Nannini. Sophomores Dave Wilson and Tom Maloney also ran with the Varsity several times. These runners formed Gordon's exceptional team, compiling well over 100 victories.

The Sophomores, though not as powerful as last year's, had a good season also. They too compiled over 100 victories and two invitational championships. Led by Dave Wilson and Tom Maloney, the sophomores proved Gordon's coming power. Lou Herrera, Mark Buciak, Alex Sanchez, Jerry Tabat, Duane Biala, and Ed Malinowski round off the Sophomore squad.

Running for the first time with a full schedule, the Freshmen proved their strength. They had an excellent season and finished second in the Catholic League. The freshmen were led by George Valentin, Bill Wahl and Dan Perez. Coach Martarano commented on the Frosh RAMS by saying that they had a great season. He felt the harriers have a fine attitude and are willing to work to attain their goals.

Gordon has enjoyed a fine season this year. But, with most of the runners returning, next year looks even better. Under the leadership of Coaches Berger, Martarano, and Kleczkowski, as well as that of Fr. Zinn, the RAM harriers hope to top their successes next year. As Coach Berger put it, ". . . Gordon will have a strong Cross-Country team for years to come." Next year should be one of those years.

Gordon finally fielded a soccer team three years ago under the leadership of Coach Dennis Gaynor. That year, they established themselves as a league power by finishing second. In their next season, the team won the Catholic League tournament but placed second during the regular season. The team's total record going into the 1975 season was 15-5-1.

It was the "Kickin' Rams" first game and they came to Grant Park to play St. Ignatius and to show them how to play soccer. After an even first quarter, freshman Mike Duffy put the Rams ahead 1-0 on a team effort goal by Gordon. Joe Filian and Bob Meschbach followed Duffy's lead as they got a goal apiece. Gordon continued to dominate the second quarter as Filian put another one past Ignatius' goalie just before the quarter ended. The next half was all Gordon, as excellent defense and two more goals by Meschbach made the final 6-0.

Chicago Latin was to be Gordon's next victim. Captain Joe LaPlaca scored twice against a weak Latin defense, giving the Rams a 2-0 lead. Meschbach opened the second half with a goal against a Latin team that was now out for blood. This blood was theirs as Meschbach placed another one in the net to make the final 4-0.

Herman Kreiner leads the Rams up the field.

Gordon's skills were to be tested against suburban powerhouse Niles East. After a close first half with Gordon leading 2-1 on goals by Filian and Meschbach, the Rams came alive. Niles scored early in the first half to tie the game, but their defense could not hold out any longer as John Voules overpowered the Niles' goalie with a blistering shot to give Gordon the lead. Meschbach and Filian took advantage of the situation and got a goal apiece to make the final 5-3.

Gordon's last preseason game before the Catholic League Tournament was against Holy Trinity. The first quarter yielded no scoring. The Rams came alive in the second quarter, as the duo of Meschbach and Filian struck with terror getting a goal apiece giving the Rams a 2-0 lead. Meschbach added one more to make the score 3-0 with one half to defend the lead. This was done with ease to give the Rams the victory and their third shut-out of the year.

Gordon with an exceptionally strong team was out to defend their title as the Tourney Champs. First to fall was St. Rita. The Rams dominate play, and Bob Meschbach came up with the important goal as he has done all year. This was the only score of the first half and it put Gordon ahead 1-0 with one half remaining. In the second half the Rams capitolized on the Mustang's poor defense, as Joe Filian insured the Gordon lead by putting a pass from Bob Meschbach into the net. Rita did not let up but neither did the Rams, as goalie Jim Owen preserved the shut-out and the game.

Next for Gordon was Brother Rice, Rice was exceptionally strong all around and a good first half was the result, especially for the Rams as Bob Meschbach tallied to give Gordon a 1-0 lead. Rice was determined to score, but tough defense by Frank Schmalz, Rob O'Connor, Pat Ganshirt, and Glen Tourville, stopped Rice's drive again and again, and thus saved the game.

The "Kickin' Rams" tried to prove the domino theory by forcing Loyola to fall just like the others did. Loyola surprised Gordon, by scoring early putting the Rams down for the first time all year. Joe Filian evened it up near the end of the first half. Loyola was able to beat goalie Jim Owen, and the Rams were down by one. Gordon tried in vain to score but they were to be denied and Loyola was the new Tourney Champ.

Just because the Rams didn't win the Tourney didn't mean that they weren't the best in the Catholic League, and they were going to prove it at the expense of St. Rita.

The dismal Rita stadium did not stop the Rams in their first official game of the season; and it certainly did not stop Bob Meschbach, as he scored three times in the game to give Gordon the victory 3-0.

Gordon's next game was against Bro. Rice. The Rams got on top early with a goal from Joe Filian which was the result of a Bob Meschbach pass. Out of the 5 shots that Rice got during the whole game, the two penalty shots that they were awarded was all they needed as they won the game 2-1.

In their next game Gordon didn't forget what Loyola did to them, and the Rams weren't going to let the Cake forget either. Loyola came out strong with an early goal putting the Rams down 1-0. But the Rams regained their poise and held off Loyola for the rest of the half. In the second half Meschbach started the scoring and tied the game at 1-1. Next, it was Joe Filian's turn as he put the Rams up by one. Bob Meschbach with visions of the Tournament, scored two more times to put the icing on the Cake. This made the final 4-1, and put the Rams in first place.

Gordon breezed by De LaSalle 5-1, with scoring by Joe Filian in the first quarter to give Gordon the lead 1-0. Joe LaPlace and Bob Meschbach were turned loose and scored two goals apiece to end the scoring and the game.

St. Laurence was next. Even though Laurence scored early in the first quarter this did not give the Vikings the momentum that they needed. Bob Meschbach greeted Laurence with a goal in the first quarter. Gordon wanted more, and so did Filian and Meschbach. Filian and Meschbach each scored to up the lead to 3-1. Laurence couldn't control Meschbach as he stunned the Vikings one more time to make the score 4-1. John Voules found an open net as he finished the scoring ending the game at 5-1.

The Rams had the honor of playing in the first soccer/football double header in the history of Gordon. The Rams increased their win streak to 4 by beating St. Rita on the fast turf at Hanson Stadium, 5-3. The Rams playing for the first time on artifical turf utilized their talents from the start of the game. Captain Joe LaPlaca and Bob Meschbach got the game off to a good start by getting a goal apiece in the 1st quarter. The defense consisting of Frank Schmalz, Pat Ganshirt, Mike Duffy, Rob O'Connor, and Glen Tourville, held off the Mustangs to give Meschbach and LaPlaca the opportunity to replay the first quarter. Rita took advantage of the fast turf and managed to sneak 2 goals passed the defense and goalie Jim Owen, to put the Mustangs down by two at the end of the 3rd quarter 4-2. Meschbach put Rita out of the game by scoring once more. Rita matched Meschbach's goal, but that was all they could match as they lost 5-3.

With a few days rest the "Kickin' Rams" travelled to Lincoln Park meeting Bro. Rice to play in what could be called the closest game the Rams played all season. Bro. Rice couldn't stop Meschbach as he capitolized on a flaw in Rice's defense to give Gordon a 1-0 lead. Pat Ganshirt, Mike Duffy, and Frank Schmaltz, came up with spectacular plays only to have those plays matched by Rice. The game was tied when a Rice player slipped a shot past goalie Jim Owen. The Rams were not about to settle for a tie. Bob Meschbach did not want to settle for a tie, either. He scored in the clutch as he has done all year to give Gordon the lead and the game.

The Rams had a much easier time against Loyola than they did against Rice. With Gordon controlling most of the first half Meschbach overpowered Loyola's goalie to give the Rams a 1-0 lead with one half to play. On a fluke play, Pat Ganshirt did not only come up with his usual fine defensive plays but he scored a 45 yard goal. This affected Loyola's timing and paved the way for a John Voules goal to end Loyola's chance for 1st place.

The Rams had a surprisingly easy game against De LaSalle as a weak De LaSalle team let Meschbach earn 3 goals in the 2nd quarter. There was no more scoring and the score remained 3-0 till the end of the game.

With winning their final game the Rams would take the Catholic League crown home to Gordon. Gordon played like League Champions should against the St. Laurence Vikings. Gordon dominated play during the whole game. Meschbach and LaPlaca got one apiece in the first half making the score 2-0. Meschabach wanted the Gold, as he tallied up 2 more goals as compared to Laurence's one, to give Gordon a 4-1 victory.

Gordon was now in the State Playoffs for the 2nd consecutive year. With a much stronger team the Rams were looking for a possible state championship. This dream started to become real as they met West Leyden in the sub-sectionals.

Gordon charged out like starving lions smelling meat in the air. Bob Meschbach sent Joe Filian a perfect pass who in turn put it in the net. Joe LaPlaca followed suit as he ended the scoring in the first quarter. Gordon was leading 2-0. The second quarter displayed more Ram power than the first, Joe Filian came up with two more goals to give him three for the day. Bob Meschbach scored to increase the score to 5-0. Mike Duffy came up with his second goal of the year to give Gordon a 6-0 lead. Leyden managed to get a consolation goal by beating goalie Jim Owen ending the half at 6-1. The scoring was not over. Bob Bischoff came up with his first goal of the year. Meschbach got his 34th goal of the season raising the score to 8-1. Gordon was not through with West Leyden, Pete Nodzenski came up with his only goal of the year to make it 9-1. Nick Rebel got the final goal making the final 10-1 in favor of an awesome Ram team.

This dream that the Rams were in turned into a nightmare. Gordon had met their match, a team that was more awesome than they were. This team was Oak Park. Gordon was stopped time after time while Oak Park always kept moving. Oak Park placed the ball in the net 3 times in the first half. The Rams were able to pull within two when Joe Filian scored in the fourth quarter. This goal was too little and too late. Gordon had lost the game to an excellent team 4-1. This loss eliminated them from the playoffs and ended the chance to make their dream a reality.

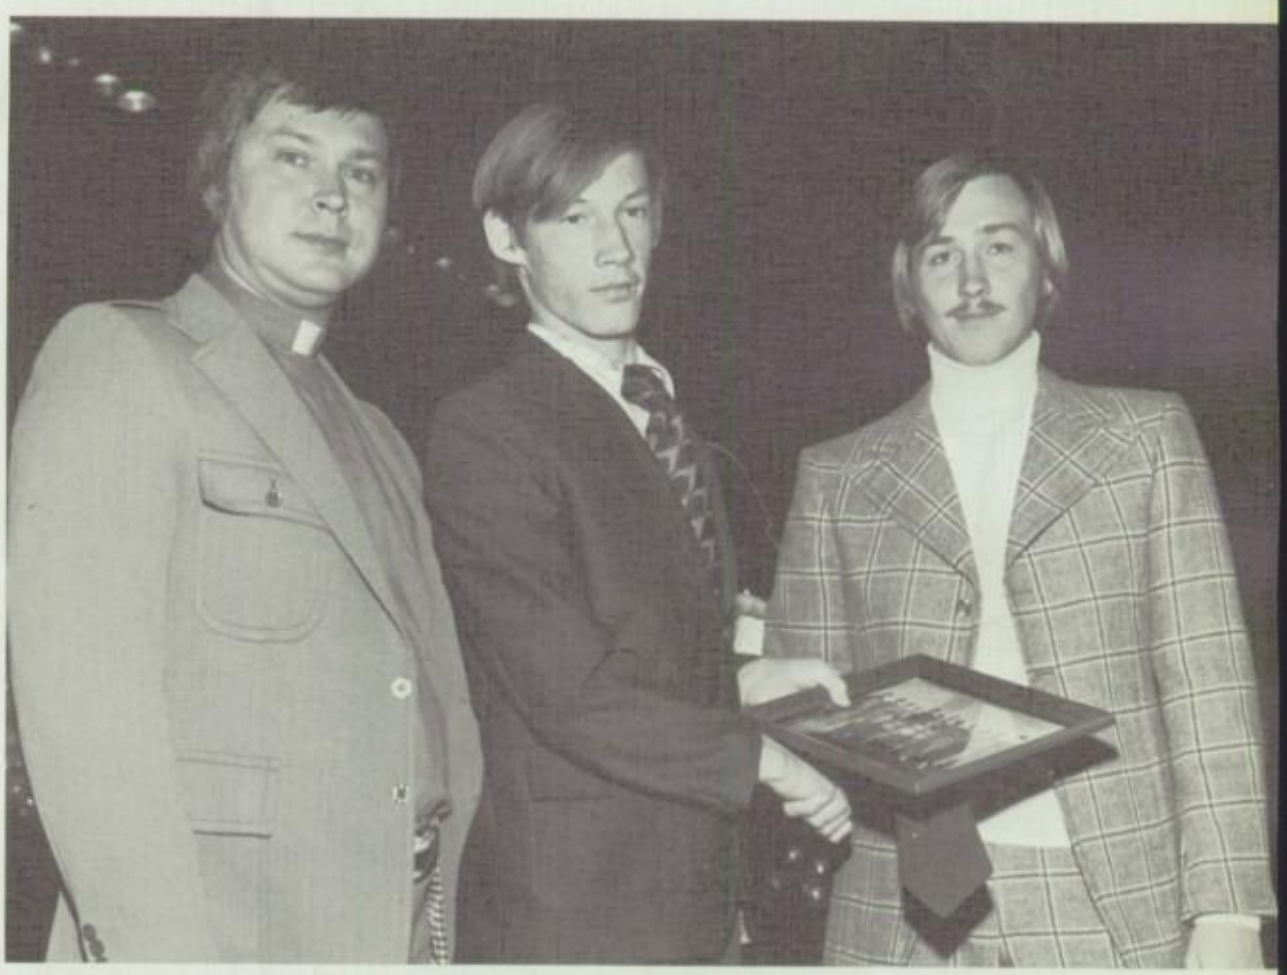
FALL BANQUET

The final chapter of the 1975 Fall Sports came to a close on December 6 at the banquet. Following the dinner, the award ceremony began. Coach Winiecki passed out three awards; Most Valuable Back, Most Valuable Lineman, and the Coaches Award. Wally West, Steve Otis, and Pat Farrell won the awards respectively. Coach Gaynor passed out just one award, the MVP which was won by Joe LaPlaca. Coach Berger handed out a Most Valuable Runner award to Jim Flannery and the Coaches' Award to John Olszewski.

Memories of the '75 season still live on. Watching Jim Flannery break away from a pack and into first, or one of Bob Meschbach's kicks eluding the opposing goaltender as it did 34 times, or a bone crushing tackle by Pat Farrell is sketched clearly in the minds of loyal fans.

Not only memories of individuals but also the memories of the teams remain. The first place showing of the Soccer Team, and the Cross-Country team's return to the top. Their legacy lives on.



Pat Farrell accepts the Coaches' Award from Coach David Proffitt.

Most Valuable Player Jim Flannery accepts his awards from Cross-Country Moderator Fr. Don Zinn and Head Coach Doug Berger.

Joe LaPlaca looks over his MVP award as he receives it from Head Soccer Coach Dennis Gaynor.

PRINCIPAL

In a school the size of Gordon Tech it is very easy for a large number of people not to know the Principal. Fr. Mitrenga, however, is known by all. His time is filled with many meetings through which he supervises and coordinates all of the academic, extra-curricular, fiscal, and fund-raising plans of the school. He meets weekly with the Administrative Board and each month he meets with the Advisory Board and with each of the Departmental Chairmen. In addition to his duties as Principal Fr. Mitrenga also serves as the Moderator of the National Honor Society which has weekly meetings.

During this year there has been much construction in the building which required his attention. The North Central Evaluation and Visitation was this year and Father was kept abreast of all developments in that area by Mr. Morris, the chairman of the Steering Committee.

At the end of the year it was announced at Graduation that Father Mitrenga has been appointed to a second three-year term as Principal. He will be able to see the work of his first three years grow during that time.

Fr. Mitrenga poses with recipients of the Resurrection Award: Stanley Kubat, Clarence Telkes, Regina Cukierski, and William O'Connor. State Representative Michael Holewinski joins them for the picture.

Fr. Mitrenga, Fr. Rog the Resurrectionist Provincial, and Mr. James J. Ahern listen as Mr. Robert Morris gives his opening remarks at the North Central Visitation opening session.

Fr. Mitrenga Appointed to Second Three Year Term

Fr. Mitrenga makes his last comments to the graduates at the Commencement Ceremony at Arie Crown Theater.

Father Ed and Coach Tom Winiecki get a chuckle out of Mr. Morrison's remarks at the Winter Sports Banquet.

On the last full day of school the principal called all the seniors to the cafeteria during the homeroom period and gave them information on the alumni plans.

Main Office

During the construction and remodeling of the Main Office students had to hazzard the disarray left by the workmen.

Business went on as usual during the period of remodeling and Fr. Blaski finds that Mrs. Cottini's desk is a convenient place to make a phone call.

In order to coordinate the numerous business affairs that take place daily at Gordon we must have an efficient office staff. They play a vital role in the smooth functioning of the school.

The ladies in the main office take care of the general business: switchboard, reciepts, record keeping, reception. The business office handles the financial transactions of the school while the attendance office handles tardys and absences.

The school nurse treats sick and injured students and faculty members. She also maintains health and insurance records.

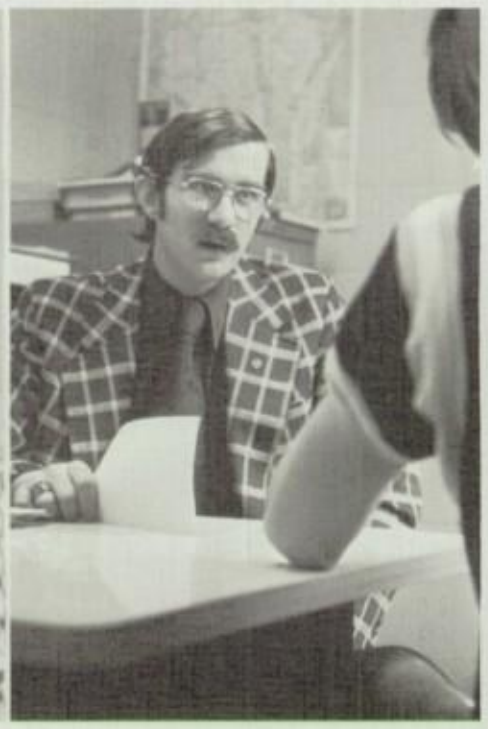
ADMINISTRATION

The principal is assisted in his duties as the chief executive of the school by the officers of the administration. Two Assistant Principals are responsible for teacher personnel and records control. Two Deans of Students handle the discipline policies for the school. The Curriculum Director who also serves as the programmer is charged with problems of curriculum development and scheduling. The Director of Buildings is accountable for the maintenance and repair of all school facilities. The School Business Manager handles all accounting tasks and budget planning for the fiscal solidarity of the school. The Director of Student Activities coordinates all extra-curricular activities, arranges assemblies, and makes the announcements on a daily basis.



Assistant Principal Mr. Clarence Telkes is well known to Gordon Tech athletes whom he serves as Head Trainer.

MATHEMATICS

The Mathematics Department has a required two year program as well as elective courses for college-bound students who will major in mathematics, the physical sciences, or engineering. The courses range in difficulty levels from courses for students who have problems in concepts to courses which challenge students with outstanding ability.

The department has expanded its course selection to include a course called Foundation of Math and Symbolic Logic which studies the theory of axioms as it applies to the foundation of mathematics.

Besides expanding from within, the department complements the programs set up by the business and industrial education departments by offering a business math course and a shop math-geometry course.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Communication Department covers three major areas of study: speech arts, visual arts, and musical arts. Because of this, it is the most diversified department at Gordon Tech.

The graduation requirement in the department is one half year of speech. Competitive speech and drama are offered for those students who take an interest in the Speaking Arts. The Speech and Debate Teams are extra-curricular activities associated with these courses.

Musical arts are covered by such courses as Band, Chorus, Music Survey, and Lyrics as Literature. Students with exceptional interest in this field can join the Jazz, Concert, or Marching Bands.

The Visual arts are the most encompassing field that is covered by the department. Art, Media Projects, Film Projects, and Television Production make up this extensive program.

SCIENCE

Gordon's Science Department is unique because it not only offers an excellent program in Biology, Chemistry, and Physics but it also offers courses such as Earth Science, Life Science, and Environment and Man.

Earth Science is a course of general science that discusses astronomy, geology, oceanography, meteorology, and other facets of the earth and the relationships to man. Life Science covers an introduction to the scientific method and environmental science along with an introduction to general science. Environment and Man looks at the earth's processes and asks how can man change to adapt to his environment.

For seniors with exceptional ability there are Honors Courses available in Biology and Chemistry. Students can get college credit by participating in these courses and the Advanced Placement program.

One year of Science is required at Gordon but college-bound students take up to four years.

SOCIAL STUDIES

The Social Studies Department attempts to give students a realistic understanding of our present day society by tracing the historical paths of our social, economic, and political development. Once the student has investigated the almost infinite sources of knowledge around him in both books and experience, he realizes that in learning he must prepare himself to meet men who are equal to those whose works he has already read. He realizes that he is a social being and he must understand the past to function today.

Students are required to complete a full year of Modern World History, American History, and a half year of Government in order to graduate. For the student who wishes to devote more time in specific fields of study, the History and Philosophy of Communism, History of Chicago, African, Asian, and Latin American History, are available.

Psychology, and Sociology are new courses which further takes a look at the way man has acted and how he might react.

Students spend long hours researching papers for American History courses in the library.

ENGLISH

The courses offered by the English Department can be divided into two fields of study; composition and literature. Because of the alarming fact that more and more students can't express their thoughts fluently and completely, the department has put more emphasis on composition courses by having the freshmen take a full year of basic composition. The department's goals are to develop competent oral and written expressions and to develop proficiency in language usage.

In the literature sequence, the student is introduced to literature and in his junior and senior years the study is narrowed down to American and English works. Through this sequence, the student can develop an appreciation of reading and an interest in literature and he can find literature a model of effective and creative written expression.

The electives offered by the department appeal to the students outside reading interests.

FACULTY-at-LARGE

While these teachers are not affiliated with a particular academic department they do constitute an integral part of the school.

The librarian is actually a teacher: many English classes are brought to the library to receive instruction from Fr. Oross in basic research skills and bibliography. He is also busied with ordering new books and making sure that an atmosphere conducive to study is maintained at all times.

The audio-visual equipment is maintained by Brother Ed Jaszkowski who has a student staff to help him. Many teachers use A-V materials in their classes and Brother Ed keeps records on new acquisitions and consults with teachers on purchases of new materials.

The supervision of the cafeteria is the responsibility of Brother Frank Dusiewicz who also serves as head Baseball Coach, Wrestling Moderator and Freshman football Coach.

Fr. Valentine Lesiak served as a study hall moderator during the school year. We were all saddened by his death on the Tuesday after Easter.

Junior Phil Enhelder wins a raffle in the Cafeteria as Bro Frank makes the announcement.

GUIDANCE

Mr. Watts and Fr. Wojcik take a moment to relax during a break in the Freshmen Parent's night schedule.

The nine counselors who are responsible for testing, counseling, vocational information, and placement form the Gordon Tech Guidance Department. Through its services, the guidance department hopes that students will grow in their academic, personal, and career development.

Each counselor is responsible for all four years, and he talks with each student at least twice a year, in either group sessions or individually.

The Guidance Department is in charge of all of the testing in the school from the entrance exam for incoming freshmen to the Iowa Test of Educational Development which is administered in May to the seniors. Through these tests the Guidance Department can place students in courses that match their ability and help students choose courses that meet their interests and goals. Dr. Vincent Pisani, the consulting Psychologist for the school, comes in weekly to help students and aid the guidance staff.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

The Industrial Education Department's purpose is to train students who wish to learn a trade. By offering courses in Auto Shop, Electric Shop, Machine Shop, and Wood Shop the students are faced with problems and tasks skilled laborers encounter in their daily jobs. The students are taught to evaluate and solve these problems. Courses are taught in a classroom, providing book knowledge and also in the shops providing the practical experience necessary for this type of training.

The Industrial Occupations program provides students exposure to a trade while earning high school credit. Students spend part of the day at school and then go to work.

Since all the courses related to the Industrial Education Department are elective students are able to concentrate on courses that are compatible with their interests.

Miss Nancy Chiodo sang accompanied by Gordon Students at the Rock Mass which was organized by the Religous Education Department during the first semester.

The Religious Education Department strives to develop well-rounded students by presenting a positive understanding of the values of Christ. The department is of prime importance to the school community because it helps create the climate in which adult faith is developed.

The department is based on the principles that instruction is necessary so that faith can be informed. Through this instruction a formation of a Christian mentality can be developed and the end result is an active involvement in the activities of Jesus Christ in his Church.

The Christian Involvement program is one way that students can channel their interests through activities that benefit others.

Each item on this table was presented by a student in the Offertory of the opening liturgy of the school year. They represent the many activities and pursuits of students.

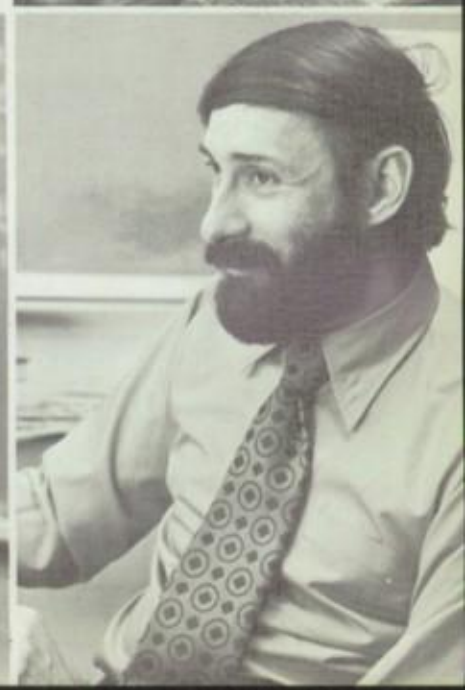
I.I.R.P.

Because of Gordon's policy of individualized programming, the Individualized Instruction and Resource Program (I.I.R.P.) was initiated to help students realize their potential. Through increased cooperation between students, teachers, and parents emphasis on individuals and group study, low class size, and an increase in classroom activities the motivation of the individual student becomes the focal point of the program.

The spirited Mr. Lou Prete of the I.I.R.P. is also the moderator of the Bicycle club.

Offered to freshmen and sophomores the program is taken as a three credit block unit with composition, reading, algebra, and science taken by the freshmen and composition, literature, geometry and social studies taken by the sophomores. Students are also required to take religion and physical education along with at least one elective.



PHYSICAL EDUCATION

A strong mind and strong body are two of the goals of Gordon Tech and the Physical Education Department aims to fulfill the second goal. Required for graduation, the four year program offered by the department strives to develop coordination, sportsmanship, self-expression, leadership, self-control, and responsibility while developing personal hygiene and general body fitness.

During the sophomore year, students take a health education course which covers topics such as exercise, nutrition, drug abuse, and basic first aid.

Team P.E. is available for students who are members of varsity teams. Adaptive P.E. is taken by students who are under doctor's care or whose activity must be modified.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

The study of a foreign language plays an instrumental role in the education of every student by preparing him to function more efficiently in a world society. The knowledge of a second language is advantageous to students who will continue in college seeking careers in human relations, as well as students who will pursue other careers.

Language learning involves not only the communication skills: understanding, speaking, reading and writing a foreign tongue, but also a set of customs and habits. Because of these customs and habits the student's view of the world widens and another dimension in the student's way of life is added.

BUSINESS

The goal of the Business Department is to familiarize students with the business world through Consumer Education, a course which is required for graduation. For students who are considering an occupation in the business world, the department offers accounting, marketing, sales, and other skills that are beneficial in business. Typing is also offered for students who wish to learn this practical skill.

Distributive Education is a program offered by the department where students work in a business related field, and receive credit for both classroom participation and on-the-job experience.

MOTHERS CLUB

Operating educational institution the size of Gordon Technical High School is extremely expensive: maintenance, repairs, remodeling, educational supplies, faculty salaries, insurance all contribute to the high costs. The income which the school receives from tuition and fees alone would not cover all the costs.

The generous members of the Mothers Club and the Fathers Club help the school by raising funds through their many activities. They make fund-raising fun! The Annual Fall Festival is sponsored by both the Fathers and Mothers Clubs and always is a great benefit to the school and its fiscal problems. The Mothers Club Annual Fashion Show is known throughout the city and provides an evening of entertainment for all who attend and it also benefits the school.

Bingo is played in the Gordon Tech Cafeteria on Tuesday nights and on Sunday afternoons; this is a joint effort of members of the Fathers and Mothers Clubs. The proceeds go to the school.

The Gordon Tech Fathers Club maintains a special fund which pays the tuition of any member's son if that member should die during the year. This guarantees a Catholic education for the young man until he finishes high school.

Mr. Art Borkowski and Mrs. Therese Pisauro both served as models at the annual Mothers Club Fashion Show.

Every seven years high school which are members of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges undergo a process known as a self-study. The school begins by forming committees consisting of faculty members, administrators, and students. These committees prepare a report in which they evaluate a particular area of the school (an academic department, extra-curricular programs, sports, administration, etc.) listing both the weaknesses and strengths of that area. In April of this year the North Central Visitation took place.

The visitors were invited from a list made up from names suggested by faculty members and administrators. They were from all walks of life: predominantly educators but also including parents, students from other school, businessmen, and parish priests.

The evaluation which was done by our own committees is presented to the visitors. They in turn evaluate our evaluation.

Planning and coordination for the North Central Visit was directed by Mr. Robert Morris, Chairman of the Steering Committee. The chairman of the visiting team was Mr. James Ahern, principal of the Florence Nightengale School.

The North Central self-study ended with a resolve that we continue the process of evaluation throughout the year.

RESURRECTION AWARDS BANQUET

One of the first things Fr. Mitrenga did after he was assigned Principal three years ago was to organize the Resurrection Awards Banquet. The Resurrection Fathers and Brothers wanted to express their thanks and gratitude to the many people who had contributed their time, efforts, and money to the cause of supporting Catholic Education of Youth at Gordon Tech.

The evening features cocktails and a dinner served by the students. After dinner there is an address by a guest speaker. This year Fr. Eugene Szarek, C.R., the vocation director for the Chicago Province of the Congregation of the Resurrection spoke to the assembled guests.

The presentation of the Resurrection Awards followed the address. After being announced by the Principal in a brief testimonial speech each recipient was escorted to the podium by one of the Resurrection priests or brothers to receive his or her award. The evening closed with a benediction consisting of the recitation of the "Resurrectionist Pledge". After this cocktails are served and the recipients receive the congratulations of the other guests.

Fr. Joseph Wojcik and Fr. Mitrenga pose with Mrs. Regina Cukierski, one of this year's winners of the Resurrection Award.

This year the committee which chooses the recipients of the Resurrection Award decided to name four persons: Mrs. Regina Cukierski, Mr. Stanley Kubat, Mr. William O'Connor, and Mr. Clarence Telkes.

Mrs. Cukierski has been with the Gordon Tech Mothers Club for more than fifteen years. All of her sons attended Gordon and her husband, Martin, is a faculty member. She was given the award in testimony to her years of service to the school through Mothers Club activities.

Mr. Kubat has been an active member of the Fathers Club for many years. He was nominated and received the Resurrection Award for his generosity and service.

Mr. William O'Connor is a past president of the Gordon Tech Fathers Club and he too received the award for his long-standing service and generosity to the school and all its activities.

Mr. Clarence Telkes, assistant principal of Gordon Tech, is the first person actually employed by the school to receive this award. He was cited for his dedication to education and to Gordon Tech for so many years.

Brother Frank and Fr. Mitrenga flank Mr. Bill O'Connor, past president of the Fathers Club and Resurrection Award recipient.

RESURRECTION AWARDS BANQUET

Fr. Eugene Szarek, Director of Vocations for the Congregation of the Resurrection was the main speaker.

This is the third annual Resurrection Awards Banquet. Each year after the Awards have been made the names of the recipients are added to the plaque which hangs outside the entrance to the Main Library. There are now sixteen people who have received the Award.

Fr. Fred Ciesla, Mr. Bill Watts, and Mr. Robert Perrin talk together before dinner.

Fr. Rog stops to compliment Fr. Mitrenga on the dinner and the presentation of awards.

Fr. Denis Oross, Brother Ed Jaszkowski, and Mr. Max Cukierski continue their discussion into the evening.

FALL FESTIVAL

Every year Gordon Tech's Mothers and Fathers Clubs sponsor a Fall Festival to raise funds for the school. This year the funds were donated for the rebuilding of the Student Administration Center.

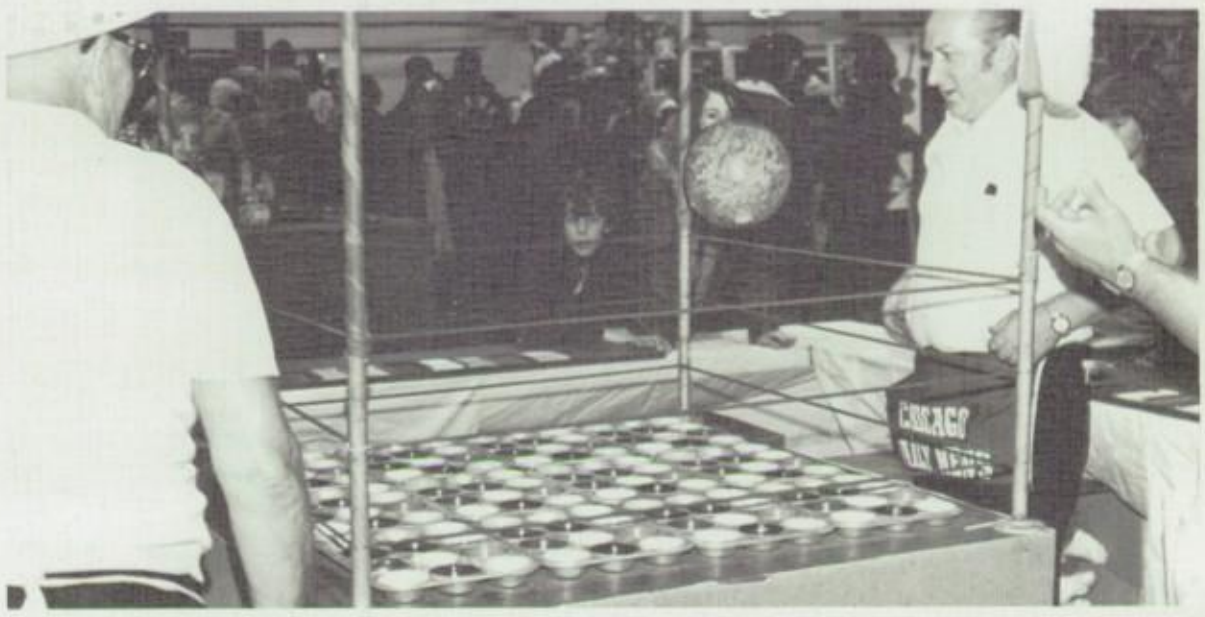
The theme of the festival was "Bicentennial" and the gym was decorated accordingly. On stage was a bust of Uncle Sam surrounded by signs representing each of the fifty states. There also was a booth selling red, white, and blue souvenirs.

In the middle of the gym a makeshift arcade was set up with a variety of arcade games including pin-ball machines. After the Fall Festival was over the machines were left in the cafeteria and the Student Council made good use of them in the "Pin-Ball Wizard Contest".

Around the sides of the gym there was a variety of games and raffle booths. The games included tossing softballs at milk bottles, throwing ping-pong balls into goldfish bowls and the like. A new game was also introduced, "Jaws". To win a stuffed animal you had to throw a football through the mouth of one of the painted sharks.

Up in the gymnasium balcony bingo was being played and the 800 corridor was transformed into the "Hangout Pub". Senior Tony Mujica drew portraits for a small fee.

The cafeteria was also put to use with half being used as a Las Vegas Casino and the other half portioned off as a place to eat. The lobby of the cafeteria was made into a German Beer Garden with live music being played each night.



The lobby of the cafeteria served as a German Beer Garden where members of the fathers club served as waiters dressed in lederhosen.

By tossing a volleyball and matching up the right colors a contestant could win a stuffed animal.

The traditional goldfish booth drew attention from young and old alike.

The new game "Jaws", a creation of the Fr. Blaski was a very successful game.

The pin-ball machines seem to hold a strange fascination for most people.

"Jaws" was not only a game at the Fall Festival but a monster that plagued the crowd.

Clowns with pushcarts filled with small toys greeted the youngsters who attended.

Fr. Zinn dips into the drum to pull out the winner in the big raffle.

Senior Tony Mujica painted portraits for a small fee; some of his work is seen in the background.

It was only fitting to have a "Buffalo Booth" at a Bicentennial Fair.

Radios are always popular with GT students and their friends; the Radio booth took in a good amount.

LIBRARY AUXILIARY LADIES

Mrs. Florence DeBellis is the Assistant Librarian and in charge of all the efforts of the volunteer ladies.

The Gordon Tech Library is only able to function through the generous services of the ladies in the Library Auxiliary. The majority of these ladies are volunteers who work one or two days a week; the remainder are part of the full-time staff.

Mrs. Florence DeBellis is the Assistant Librarian and she coordinates the work of these volunteers. The ladies handle all the transactions at the front desk; maintain the career and college files; and operate the duplicating equipment for the teachers' classroom materials. Members of the Auxiliary gather once during the year for an outing with their chaplain, the librarian Fr. Denis Oross.

The typesetting room at the end of the 600 corridor is where Mrs. Aileen Susala can be found. She works at the IBM equipment which prepares the copy for the Rampage, the Curriculum Guide, the Student Handbook, the Faculty Handbook and all school forms. Mrs. Susala originally worked in the Library and has been working in the typesetting room for the past few years.

Mrs. Annamae Hitchens (seated) and Mrs. Lillian Herbold work in the College and Career Files.

Mrs. Janet Kampman is at her desk in the Periodical Room.

Serving Gordon Students

Mrs. Madelaine Macklin prepares a new book for circulation.

Mrs. Rose Wich begins to work up a book for the library by removing the dust jacket.

Mary Zehentmaier has a large pile of books to work through before she's finished for the day.

Harriet Serenda's desk is in front of the College and Career Files; she helps students with these.

Main Desk, Files Workroom

Mrs. Geraldine Bak frequently works in the card catalogue bringing all the records up to date.

Mrs. Helen Stasic's well-known by most Gordon students since she is regularly at the Front Desk.

FRESHMEN

Frosh Become Involved in Activities - Excel in Sports

In the past freshmen were always considered to be of no recognizable value. This year the freshmen did their best to turn this feeling around. They began the year with a combination orientation and club day. On that first day they showed their interest in the school by signing up for and getting information on numerous clubs and organizations and then following through on the information they received.

In the beginning of the year they looked like any other group of freshmen. But once they became familiar with the surroundings at Gordon Tech they proceeded to make themselves known.

At assemblies and pep rallies they proved to be a major asset to the school. As an active part of the student council we saw them bring many improvements to Gordon Tech. In sports the "Baby Rams" showed us that they can be winners. With their fine performances in wrestling, cross-country, basketball, and track they promised many future individual champions and team championships.

Each year in December the prospective freshmen, eighth grade students, come to an Open House. The main idea of the open house is to give the eighth grade students the general feeling of the classes and the functions at Gordon. The National Honor Society volunteers its services as guides for the night and other students are sometimes chosen by teachers and coaches to show the eighth graders and their parents what a certain class produces. Open Houses are very successful in producing future Gordonites always producing a large number of incoming students.

The visiting eighth grade student and his parents are given the opportunity to discuss the school with students, teachers, and administrators. For many people this is a first encounter with Gordon Tech and the Open House proves itself as a successful introduction to the school and its comprehensive programs.

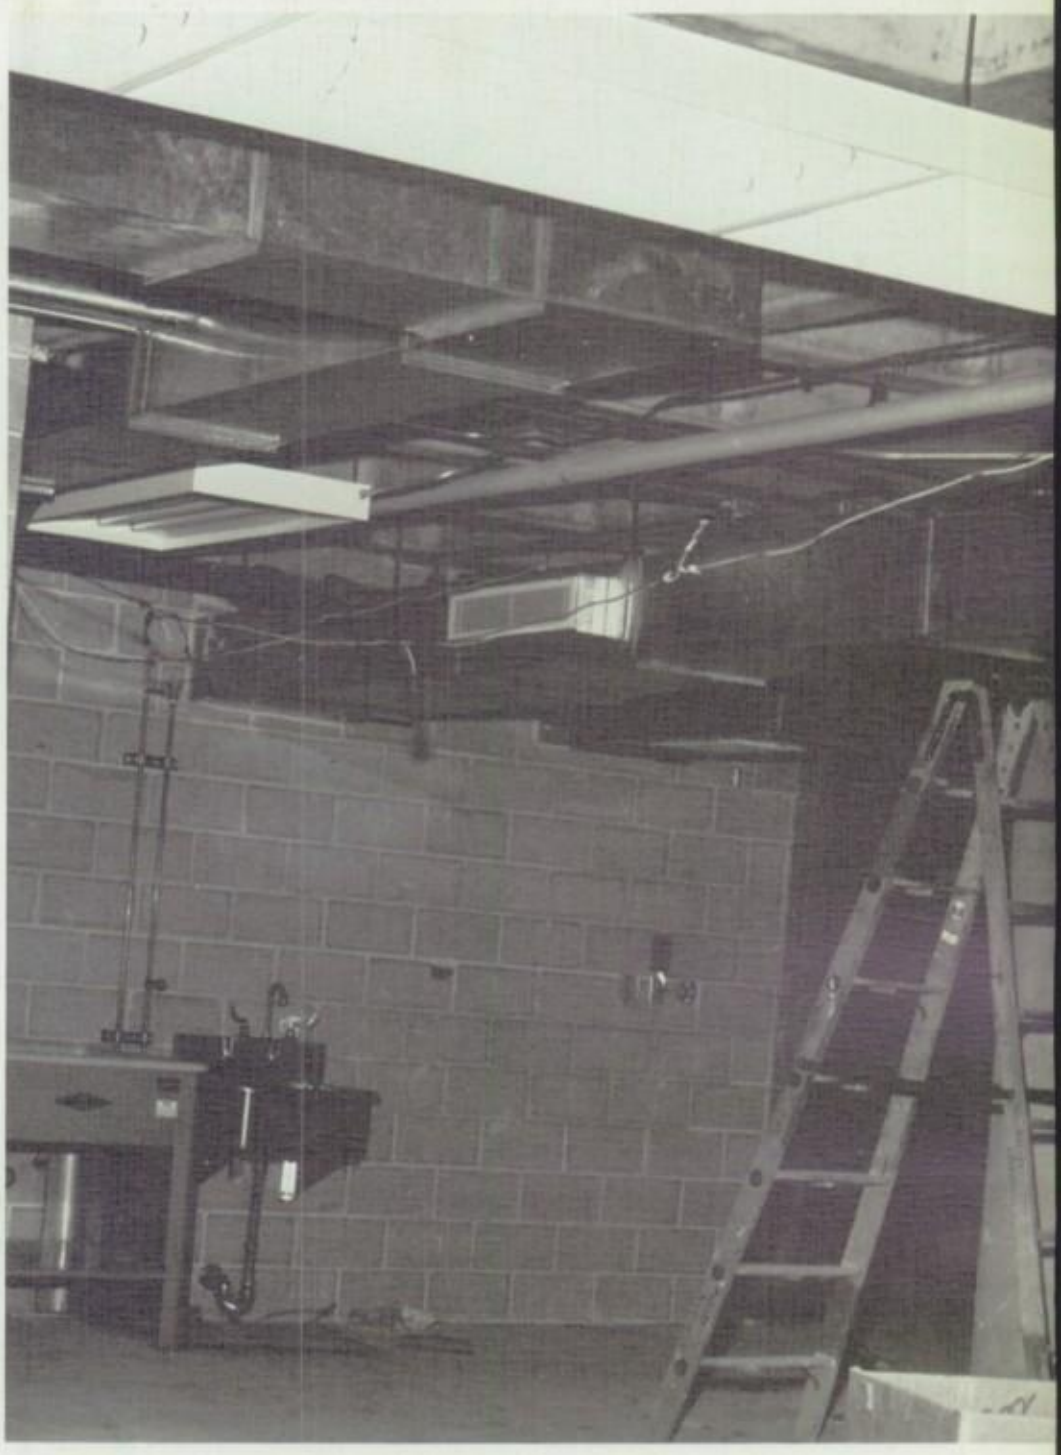
Construction Projects Through the Year

This year the building received a little plastic surgery in some places that have been waiting to get fixed for awhile, and some other space was worked on and put to a good use.

After the Student Administration Center was destroyed by fire two years ago it was used for storage. A controversy arose as to what use it should be put to. The students badly wanted a student lounge but the administration was cramped for space and decided to rebuild the Student Administration Center. The new center will house the offices of two assistant principals, the guidance director, the director of student activities, the programmer, and the records clerk.

An addition to the main office will be a new area for the switchboard and the P.A. console which will also serve as a reception area. This will give the ladies in the office more space. The remainder of the office is also being remodeled to conform with the new addition.



The new print shop begins to take shape under the 800 building.

The space under the 800s that was formerly used for parking has been enclosed and will serve several purposes: a storage area for the Mothers and Fathers Clubs, a new maintenance headquarters, and the new home of the Gordon Tech Press. The old print shop will become a Duplication Center; this move will open up some more library space for student study.

Another thing that has been anticipated for a while is the new language lab. The old lab was small and could only accommodate half a class at a time. The new lab located in room 302 can handle a full class and is more sophisticated than its predecessor.

Council Sponsors Two Skating Parties

Following last year's successful venture, this year two skating parties were held. The first was held on December 8, 1975 and the second on April 5, 1976. With attendance close to 450 at the first and 300 at the second the Axle Roller Rink was turned into a "Home of the RAMS" for two nights. Besides regular skating there were "Couples Only", "Trios Only", "Fox Trots", and many others. For the beginners, who could have drawn a map of the rink by touch, there were other diversions: a juke box and an arcade. Jeff Pfohl can be congratulated for his fine job of organizing these efforts.

Mr. Wuerffel shows the crowd his experience at skating backwards.

RAMS Make "Crumbs" Out of Loyola Cupcakes

As a part of the Homecoming Festivities before the Loyola game the Student Council once again innovated a new idea in GT history: an "Eat the Cake" Cupcake Eating Contest. The participants, after paying a small entry fee, had to unwrap the cupcakes and jam down as many as they could in two minutes. Brother Frank kept a tight reign on the contest as the offical timekeeper. Of course the people who didn't have big mouths were handicapped, but they still attacked these cupcakes with vigor. Sophomore Pete Behrendt held out against the tough competition and came out on top. He received a $10.00 Gift Certificate at Flipside for his efforts.

Physical Fitness Test

The Physical Fitness Team, alias "Miller's Mean Machine", was not to be outdone by the firsts inspired by the Student Council. The first annual contest between the "Mean Machine" and the faculty, tabbed by the students as the "Geritol Gang" lasted three periods. The "Mean Machine" took the first round, but the gang surged ahead in the second with Bro. Frank running the first leg of the 300 yd. shuttle run. Eventually the Fitness Team pulled ahead to stay, outlasting Mr. Early's appearance on the pull-up bar.

Big Brothers Sponsor Freshman Dance

On November 7, 1975 during the activities of Freshman Initiation the annual Freshman Dance was held. The dance is sponsored every year by the Big Brothers - seniors who assist freshmen in acclimating themselves to the Gordon. The dance was held in the gym, known as the Riverside Room and lasted for two and a half hours. Despite the fact that freshmen girls were invited from neighboring schools few showed up; Gordon freshmen outnumbered the girls. Cecil Rhodes proved themselves to be an excellent group playing a great variety of music including their own rendition of "Tommy" which lasted for twenty-five minutes. The Big Brothers kept the dancing going by inducing some shy freshmen to dance. They also brought humor to the evening by doing a "can-can" dance. Glen Wurglitz, Chairman of the Big Brothers, can be commended for a job well done.

Cecil Rhodes music kept most of the small but enthusiastic crowd on the dance floor for the evening.

Club Day Held Early

This year the Student Council started the year off early changing Club Day from its usual first quarter date, to a day during Orientation Week. This way the Freshmen could start the year in a club or organization, instead of joining a club in the middle of the semester.

Most of the more than thirty-eight clubs and organizations which are active at Gordon provided a display in the balcony of the gym. The purpose of the Club Day is to get the freshmen involved in the school - to try to make them feel that they are a part of Gordon Tech.

This year's freshman class had a chance to get involved early and proved that they were up to it.

WINTER DANCE

For the first time this year the Student Council sponsored a semi-formal winter dance, "Sometimes In Winter". The dance was held in the gymnasium on Saturday, January 24. Music was provided by "Quarry", a south side band.

Approximately 100 couples came to the dance and were greeted by an elaborately decorated gym. The winter scene consisted of a huge snow cave and large snowflakes hanging from the ceiling. Because of the small advance ticket sales some decorations could not be included - a ski chalet and a mountain.

Rudi Pfeiffer headed the Student Council Committee which planned this event. He was assisted by Bob Novak, Ron LaBruno, Ed Rottinger, Mark Bialk, Robert Mischke, and Mike Skupien.

Wayne Duckmann doesn't seem to require the snow effect to have fun at the dance.

The committee table was a center of discussion during the dance; Mark Bialk, Orvin Kacprzyk, Ken Bialas and Mike Skupien huddle in conference.

"Quarry" provided the crowd with a considerable amount of fast music for dancing.

They did not disappoint those members of the crowd who enjoy a nice slow dance.

WINTER SPORTS

BASKETBALL
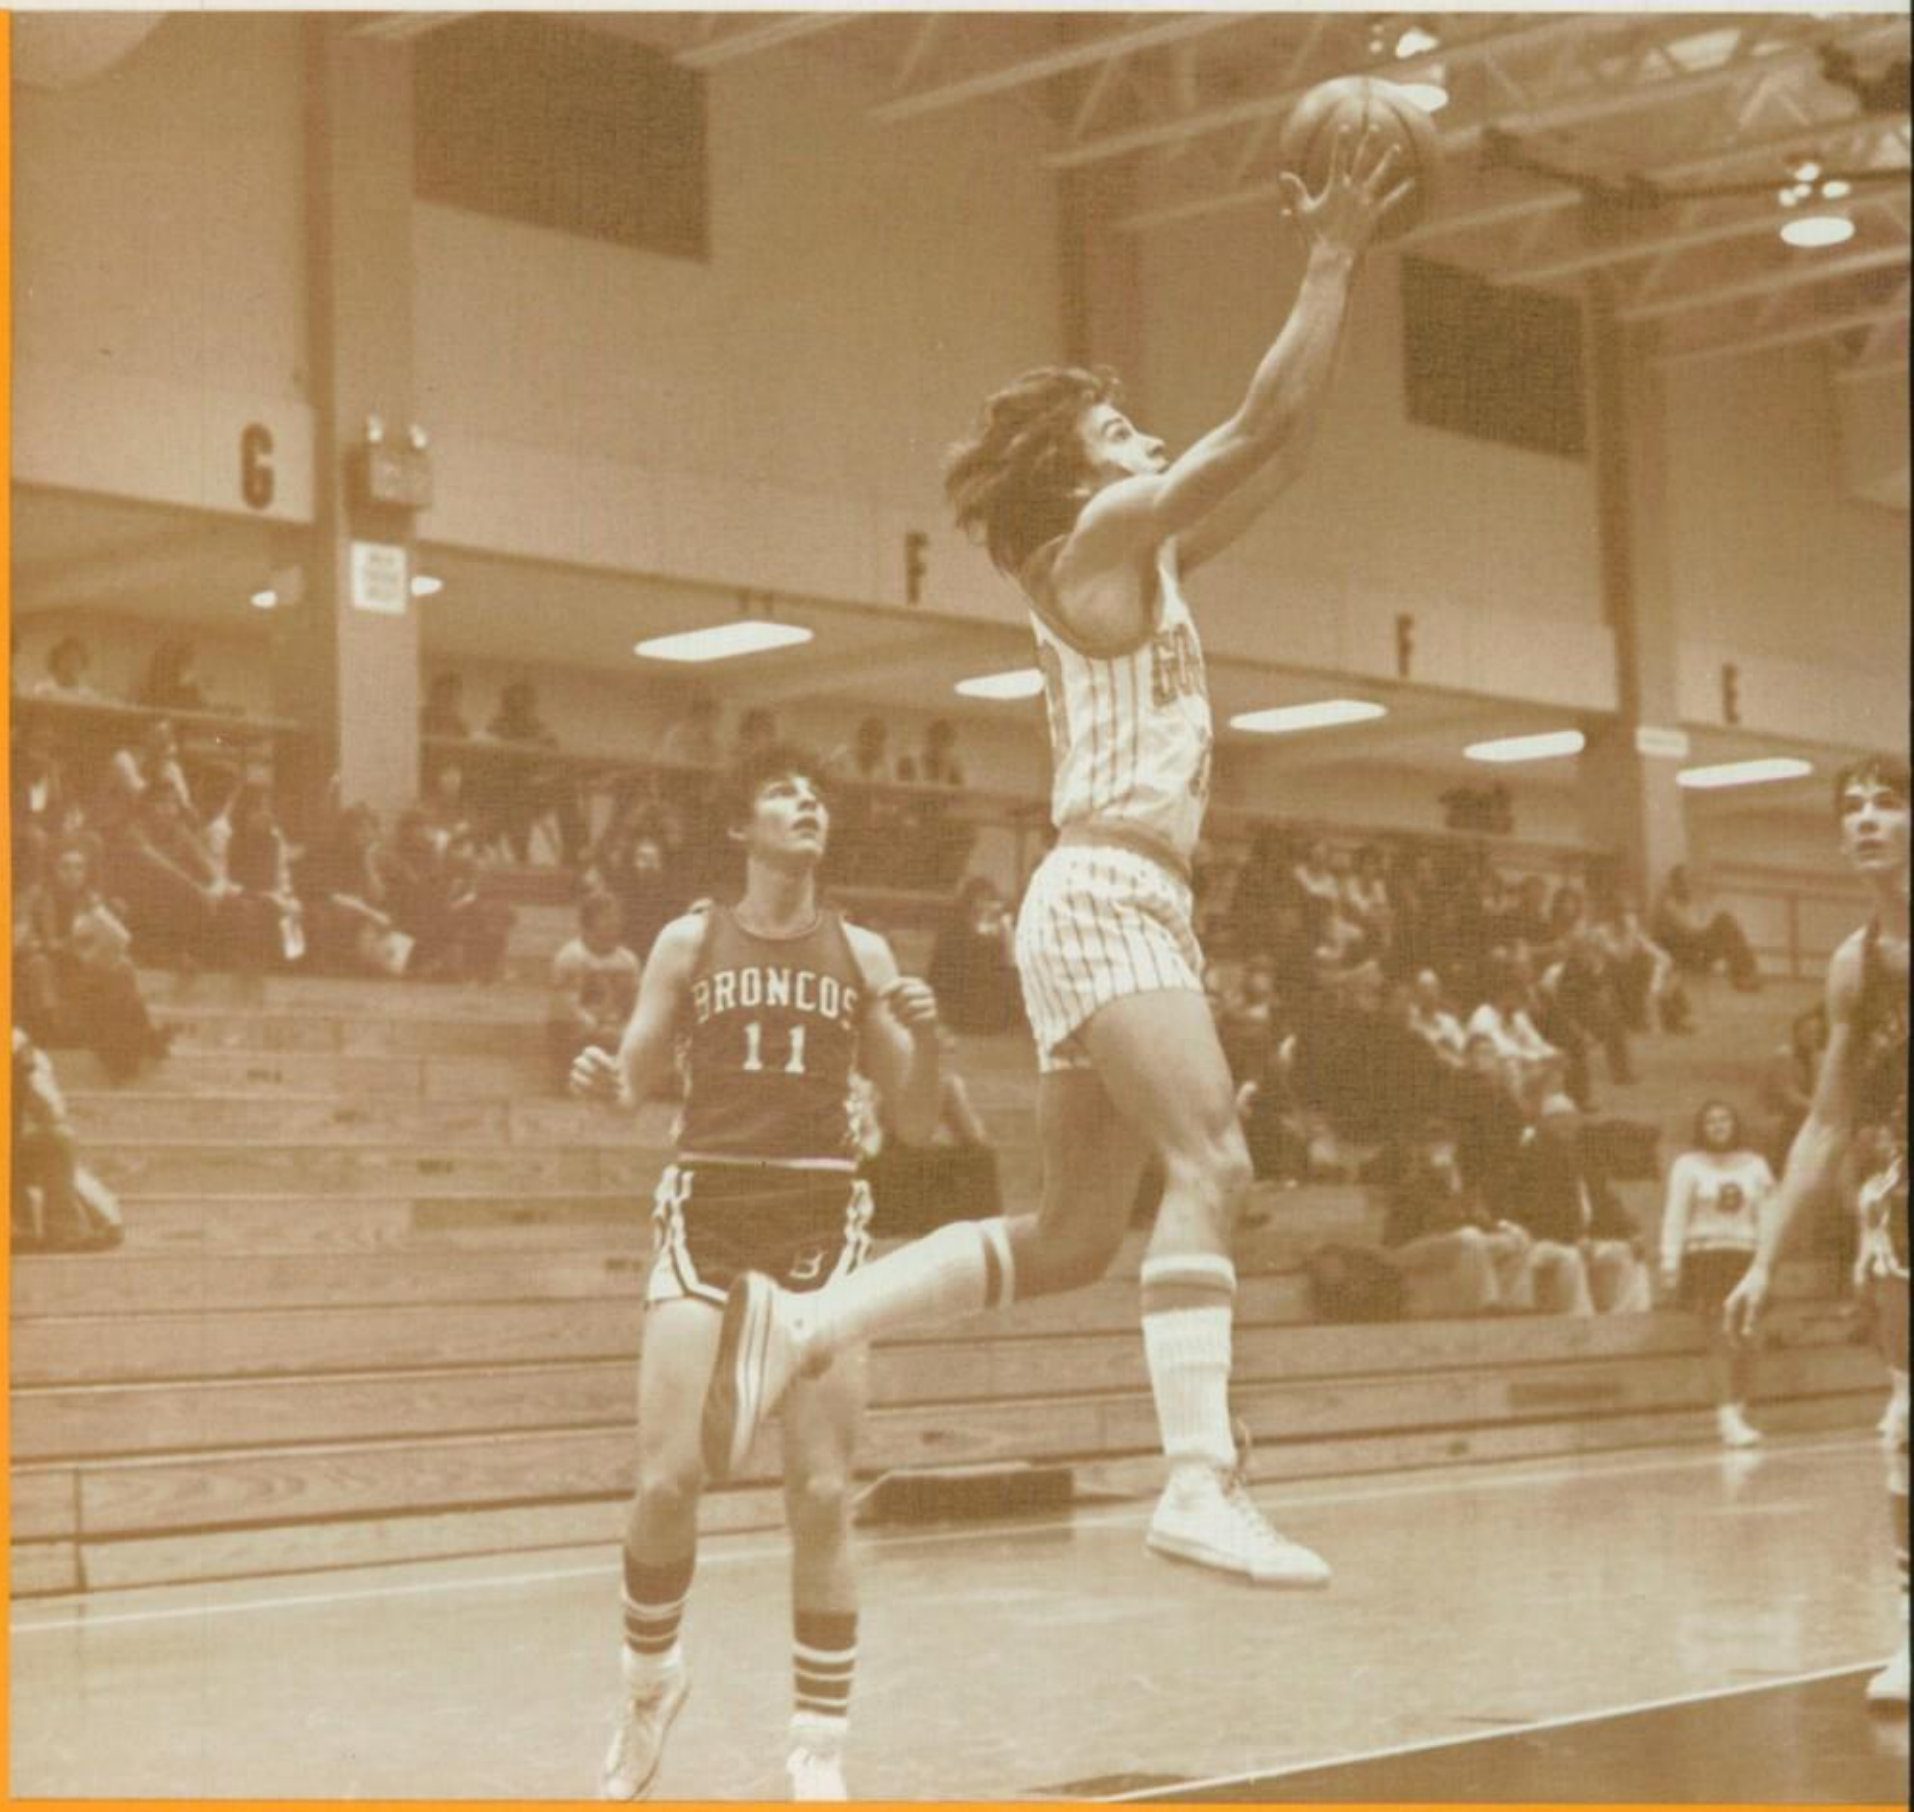
FENCING

The winter athlete is an individual; he will work for the eventual benefit of the team. In Wrestling and Fencing the efforts required are truly individual; in basketball good teamwork requires the support of each player. Each athlete must motivate himself; conditioning not only his body but also his mind before each competition.

The conditions under which the winter sports are played are all predictable: they are all indoor sports. No one can cop out by saying that the field was muddy, the wind too strong or that it was cold. The athlete must be prepared and motivated. He has only himself and his teammates to blame for failure or to rejoice with them in victory.



BASKETBALL

A lot was expected from the Basketball Rams' this season. They had a group of returning veterans that had the potential to go all the way to Champaign. They were picked to win the Catholic League, win 90% of their games and go very far in the post-season playoffs. Behind them were 2800 fans and schoolmates. With 16 bonafide stars on the court and all those dedicated followers in the stands, how could the Rams' possibly lose.

The Rams' were paced by everyone's All-Everything 6' 7" Bill Madey at forward. Bill's reputation stretches far and wide as one of the most powerful and dominant big men in the country. At 6' 3" Tim McAvoy was rather short for a center, but because of his great defense he was always put on the oppositions top scorer. E. J. Conner held down the other front line position. At 5' 9" he had to rely on quickness, jumping ability, and "going into every game hoping they didn't have a big man . . ." John Murphy, 6' 4", came off the bench to spark the team when needed.

Carl Maniscalco, 5' 9", was Gordon's floor leader, but his season was cut short as result of an injury. James Copeland was started at the opposite guard spot and was very impressive for a Sophomore. Joe Depke's devastating shooting proved him invaluable as the third guard. Jeff Rakowski, Tyrone King, Brian Maksa, John Udelhofen, Bob Egan, John Fahey, Pat Maier, Kevin O'Sullivan, and Bill Perostianis filled out the rest of the roster.

After many non-scheduled practice games (which the Rams won handily) the season finally started on November 22 with a 76-48 win over Notre Dame of Niles. Bill Madey started off the year with a 25 point performance, and the whole team played like it was going to be a great season.

The Rams now had four days of intense practice readying themselves for the St. Pat's Thanksgiving Tournament and teams like Oak Park, Prosser, Morgan Park, Roosevelt, and host St. Pats. Gordon's first contest matched them against Roosevelt on a cold blizzardry day. A late afternoon snow storm made travelling conditions virtually impossible, but the true, die-hard fans were on hand to witness the Ram-Machine fold, bend, and mutilate Roosevelt 112-46. Despite a leaky roof which left puddles of water across the floor Gordon had six men in double figures (Madey, Maniscalco, Murphy, Conner, McAvoy, and Depke) to breeze by their first opponent. Highly ranked Public League Morgan Park was next for the Rams, but Levi Cobb loomed overhead. After the Rams 32-18 halftime lead, things were never the same for the Mustangs. It took Cobb until the third quarter to score (7 pts.) and when he fouled out a short time later it didn't take much more time to wrap up the victory. Gordon played most of this game from the free-throw line, and that proved to be the margin of victory. Championship fever was already being felt by the G.T. community as the Rams moved into the final game of the tournament versus second ranked Oak Park. Their star, center Chuck Dahms, had a terribly infected elbow which hampered him throughout the game. Bill Madey scored his third straight 20+ game and the Ram guards controlled the offensive pace enroute to Gordon's first place finish. Dahms racked up 21 points but was alone when it came to rebounding. Madey was named tourney MVP, and Carl Maniscalco paired with Bill on the All-Star team. "St. Pats got the season going good." said Bill, "we beat two top teams, Dahms was tough, but he always had help." Oak Park coach Tom Meyer commented, "I don't think we played bad, but the early tournaments aren't really that important. Our two teams have an excellent tradition and it would be nice to win, but we were ranked second at the time and not looking for wins. We were still in need of conditioning and getting our team set. Its not good to peak the kids too early."

With the first test successfully under their belts, the Rams' were now moving into a span of five games where the competition would only increase. The team was molding now and with their game plan down pat were playing dynamite ball.

St. Pats, the team who knocked Gordon out of the playoffs last year, the team that would be looking to beat the team that took their tourney; was the first to face the Rams. A star was about to be born that night though. Not that he was unknown, but he became better recognized by leading the Rams through the toughest part of their schedule. John Murphy, Super-Sub. put him on the bench and during this time it looked like a brilliant coaching move. "Murph" came off the bench in each and every quarter to score 11 total points and close off the boards along with Madey and McAvoy to whip Pats 61-51.

In pre-season polls Gordon was picked to win the Catholic League crown along with St. Laurence. The winner of their game would have a jump on the other and probably win it alone. Well, the time had come for the showdown, St. Laurence and 6' 10" Steve Krafcisin versus Gordon Tech and 6' 7" Bill Madey. "Laurence is the rival that everyone likes to beat", stated center Tim McAvoy, who incidently had the task of covering Krafciscin. The game stayed close and was exciting as expected in the first half, with G.T. up 34-29 at its end. Conner and Madey had 10 pts. for the Rams while Krafsiscin led the Vikings with 11. The second half found Madey on the bench in foul trouble; enter John Murphy. Again Murph sparked the team scoring 13 second half pts. (17 totaled) and combining with Tim McAvoy to hold the big man to 24 pts. The Rams held on in the waning moments to preserve a 62-58 cushion. Laurence coach Chuck McAvoy and Murphy go up for the rebound following a free throw.

Schwarz said he was ". . . surprised how well Gordon played without Madey . . . and Murphy was a big factor." A game the next night against Holy Cross, saw the Rams fast break the Crusaders to death and come out with a whopping 90-56 win. Bill Madey, and, of course, John Murphy, clicked inside for 20 and 14 respectively, while E. J. Conner and Joe Depke launched their aerial attack for 14 and 12. And probably the nights high point came when Brian Maksa poped home his first points of the season with a turnaround left-handed hook.

The season was well under way now and practice was getting to be habit instead of the drudgery or earlier in the year. Along with drills of fundamental skills and going through the team offense, coaches Dan Chubrilo and Bob Ociepka taught the second string every opponents offense so they could run it against the starters readying them for every game. All of the opposing coaches have nothing but praise for Gordon's two fine varsity coaches.

"Dan Chubrilo is a fine coach, he teaches his kids well," said Ron Kalina, Ridgewood coach.

"Bob Ociepka is a super coach," stated Tom Yore, Weber coach.

Another two game weekend came on December 19 and 20 as the Rams met Fenwick on the road and St. Bens at home. Both of these games proved to be rough and there was plenty of contact between the big men. Confronations between Tim McAvoy and Ed Trauth of Fenwick resulted in an injured Friar, and Bill Madey physically showed his resentment of the treatment he was getting from Mark Wolfe. While all of this was going on the Rams were pulling off a 61-49 win. Neil Bresnahan, who had Gordon's number last year (19 pts. and 33 rebounds) could muster only 6 pts. and 5 rebounds before fouling out very early. As he had been doing lately, John Murphy was a big factor as his 13 fourth quarter points pulled Gordon from the fire. John was quoted by the Tribune as saying, "I don't like close games. We should have blown them out in the first half. When Bresnahan went out the guys just got me the ball and I made the shots." The next night, against St. Bens, Gordon outscored the Bengals 23-4 in the second quarter to turn a 18-10 defecit into a 33-22 halftime lead. The Rams' inside game (Madey 20, Murphy 10, and McAvoy 7) worked so well a frustrated Bens center took a swing at guard Carl Maniscalco.

Christmas time was rolling around and another tournament was coming up. Elgin was holding its first tourney and along with the Rams, Addison Trail, Ridgewood, Barrington, New Trier West, Glenbrook South, and Rockford East were invited. On the day after Christmas Gordon and Barrington opened up the games with the Rams showing the country boys how city ball is played. Bill Madey wasted no time in taking advantage of Barrington's 6' 4" center and scored 23 points, and Joe Depke tossed in 7 jumpers to lead Gordon to a 76-52 trouncing. Only a handfull of Rowdies saw Gordon's triumph over the Broncos, but the stands were packed when the Rams came up against the Runnin' Rebels of Ridgewood. Unfortunately, for the first time of the season, the rooters were turned away disappointed. The Rebels came out runnin' and gunnin' from the start and shot effectively from the outside to down our cagers. Ridgewood's Jamie Macahan, the series MVP, recovered from a first half injury to lead the Rebels with 28 points. Madey scored 29 for Gordon and Conner and Murphy each had 10. "We had 35 minutes to prepare," said coach Ron Kalina, "we went after our type of game and succeeded." However, the Rams quickly chased the foul taste of losing from their mouths by beating Rockford East 65-49 in the third place consolation game. Tim McAoy paced the Rams with 20 points. Carl Maniscalco and Bill Madey were named to the All-Star team.

After the first 12 games in a 24 game schedule Gordon showed great poise in achieving a 11-1 mark. The team had moved up from a 16th place pre-season poll to 4th place in the Prep Power Ratings. "We had people come in and do better than they're capable of," commented Coach Chubrilo. During the time Gordon probably played their best ball of the season. They beat some of the top talent in the area that later went on to bigger and better things. Oak Park advanced to the I.H.S.A. semi-finals only to lose to the eventual state champs Morgan Park, who the Rams also beat. And after their losses to Gordon, St. Laurence and Holy Cross went on to win 18 and 16 straight games respectively.

Joe Depke's quickness enables him to swipe one of his twenty-six steals.

But now it was time to get down to the business at hand. Gordon had 12 games left and nine were against their Catholic League counterparts. It proved to be a very balanced league, with many teams rising on certain occasions to dismay opponents and coaches alike.

The Rams traveled to De LaSalle in the first game of the new year, and celebrated 1976 with a 67-57 win. Bill Madey (22 pts.) and E. J. Conner (18 pts.) combined to overtake an up-and-coming power. The Meteors won their final six games last year and were keeping up with some tough company this year to gain respectability. They are picked along with G.T. and Weber to be a league contender next year.

The Rams got a score the next week when the Leo Lions gave them a run for their money. It took the 4th ranked Rams three and one-half quarters to catch up with and pass the Lions. Carl Maniscalco came alive in the second half to lead Gordon with 24 points.

The team started off like a house-a-fire the next weekend against Mendel as they poured in 22 first quarter points and held the Monarchs to only 9. Gordon kept up the torrid scoring pace and at the end it looked closer than it was; 78-61, Gordon. Bill Madey had his most productive night so far as he poured in 31 points. It was good to see the team playing so well, as the next night they faced Ridgewood at home and were looking for revenge. This time out the Rams handled the Rebels easily, dominating both offensive and defensive backboards while Madey and Maniscalco took care of the scoring with 21 and 16 points. Incidently, the three men who did all the scoring in their last encounter: Macahom 28, Bocan 24, and Majewski 16, were held to 6,2, and 2 points respectively.

It was now mid-January and the Rams were riding along with a 15-1 record and people were taking notice. A team practice session and an interview with Coach Chubrilo were shown on Channel 7's sports program, and there were always articles in the newspapers about Gordon Tech.

A win over St. Rita saw the Rams Catholic League record upped to 6-0 and an advance in the Pre-Power Ratings to second, behind East Leyden who was 18-0. Bill Madey's 20 points and E. J. Conner's 18 points, led the Rams 77-69 attack.

Even though the Rams were victorious at Brother Rice, 77-63, the following week there was no joy in Ramville as star guard Carl Maniscalco suffered a broken wrist due to a number of falls on a somewhat slippery floor. "Without Carl the team went down from a mental standpoint," said coach Chubrilo. "When the team was down they looked to Carl." Well the test came the next night as Gordon forced suburban Thornton of Harvey and the crowd sat on the edge of their seats waiting to see how their team would perform without their floor leader and playmaker.

Joe Depke was thrust into the starting role and did a great job on defense while scoring 8 points and passing off for many more. "Being the Senior guard on the floor, I had to try to take over the leadership. Do the same thing on offense and defense as Carl and spark the club." G.T. passed the test with a 76-54 win relying on a strong first half, 36-14. After that Thornton matched the Rams with 40 points.

Unfortunately Gordon wasn't so lucky in their next outing. A few vital mistakes in overtime due to inexperience and maybe pressure at the guard position coupled with very generous referees saw Evanston top the Rams 69-67. The fans who were there witnessed the Rams literally fight back in the final minutes to overtake the Wildkits, only to have the victory taken out of their hands. An Evanston player summed it up by saying "We beat the best, so now that must make us the best." The Weber Red Horde invaded Ram territory the next night, and Gordon was ready. The games between these two archrivals are always exciting and fiercly fought to the finish; this one was no exception. The gym was packed before half-time of the Sophomore game, with each and every fan filled with excitement and anticipation of the ensuing battle. Joe Depke put on a first half shooting show, sinking 12 points and Tim McAvoy (17 points) and Bill Madey (16 points) closed off the lanes to move Gordon to a 40-27 half-time lead. But Weber came to life after intermission and put on a show of their own. Rickey Wilson and Springfield were sinking every shot they put up. Lang's play anchored the defense which held Gordon to 23 second-half points, but the Horde fell one point shy and the Rams pulled out a squeaker 67-66. "We had a chance to win, Springfield put up one of his best shots, but it missed. Gordon is as good as any team in the state of Illinois," said Weber coach Tom Yore.

So the Rams were coasting along still undefeated in the league, with a dogfight for second and third behind them. Laurence, Fenwick, and Leo were all looking for a part if not all of the title. But Gordon had to lose first. Since only Loyola, Mt. Carmel and Hales were left to play the Rams things didn't look so great for the rest of the league. But Loyola did a job nobody expected, bettering the Rams at Gordon, 67-65. The score, however, is very misleading. "Loyola had us on the ropes and reeling," said Mr. Chubrilo. The Ramblers front line of Kirk Tatge, Mark Feiereisel, and Roy Brandys snuffed out the Rams attack; aside from Bill Madey's 25 points and Tim McAvoy's 13 all other scores were held at bay. Gordon twice was held under 10 points in a quarter. It didn't help that John Murphy, E. J. Conner, and Tim McAvoy fouled out either. The Rams did show what they were made of though, as they closed a 17 point defecit with 6 minutes left to 2 points at the buzzer.

The last home game of the season was played at Gordon on February 20 with the Rams meeting the Mt. Carmel Caravan. It was Carmel who last year spoiled Gordon's chance for a championship, but this year the Rams were not to be denied. Bill Madey, E. J. Conner, and Tim McAvoy each scored 19 to wrap up the Rams 20th victory in 23 games. The Caravan was never in the 73-60 contest and it was just a matter of how much Gordon would win by. And then, it finally happened. On Friday, February, 22 the Gordon Tech Basketball Rams whipped the Hales Franciscan Spartans 52-41 for the Catholic League title. In a rather lackluster game the Rams defense never allowed more than 13 points in a single quarter. So after the long, hard season, in this their last regular season game, they fulfilled their dream. But still there was more to come . . .

The Rams were top-seated in their I.H.S.A. Regional Tournament at Niles West. This meant that Gordon got a bye in the first round and moved right into the semi-finals; here they were to meet St. Bens for the second time this year. That first game proved to be "Ma-dey" for the Bengals as Bill scored 36 points and had an uncountable number of rebounds. Bens managed to stay close in the first half as the Rams fouling kept them on the free-throw line and it accounted for 16 of the Bengals 30 first quarter points. But after that Bill took advantage of his height and controlled the scoring and the backboards. Gordon built their lead up to 27 points at one time and it finally ended with them on top 84-59.

After a victory as convincing as the first one Gordon was moving into the Regional championship game with confidence and assurance that they would be moving into the Sectional games and containing their travels downstate.

Things however didn't turn just as the Rams expected as their opponent, Niles West, put up a defense to match any defense. Bob Zyburt (6' 6") and John Bruner (6' 5") held Bill Madey to 16 points before he fouled out in the fourth quarter. Indian guard Tommy Arns ran a perfect fast break offense as he moved unharmed through the lane to earn himself 21 points. Joe Depke scored 20 points to lead the Rams, but the points came too late to really threaten Niles. Gordon found themselves down 20-8 in the first quarter and at the half. The second half saw the Rams desperately trying to catch up but to no avail. West's deadly outside shooting plus their large lead was too much for Gordon to overtake, and it finally ended 86-71. "This was the most points we've lost by since I coached at Gordon," said Coach Chubrilo. "We expected Niles to go inside as they usually did, but they crossed us up as the guards came out shooting." From the other side Niles West Bill Schnurr, said, "Our main concern was for one player not to try to handle Madey. Gordon's full court press gave us some easy shots and we were making them. Gordon was one of the strongest teams we faced, they all did a fine job. I was impressed."

Guard James Copeland told me the fate of Gordon's future when he said, "I'm very disappointed about not making it down-state, but I've got two years left, and I guarantee you you'll see me there on T.V." I hope you're right James, I hope you're right.

Having to follow in an undefeated team's footsteps can be tough. It can get even tougher when you have the most demanding schedule in your history staring you in the face. This thought ran through the minds of this years team.

Preparations for the season ahead started early in September, with visits to the weight room 3 times a week. This lasted nearly a month and a half. We were beginning to wonder if we would lift all season instead of wrestle. But before we knew it, practice was upon us. The 2 hour sweat sessions had begun. Familiar faces were back from last years championship team, Pat Kane, John Tripoli, Art Alaniz and Steve Otis. They would be counted on to lead this year's squad. The home opener was the 26th of November. Everyone now worked towards that date. There was plenty of competition for the starting positions as everyone put out 100% during practice.

The big day had finally arrived. The RAMS came out ready as the score will tell you. Gordon on top 54-9 over Notre Dame of Niles. The Grapplers took 10 out of 12 matches with 5 pins. Before this meet team captains were chosen for the year. The co-captains were Steve Otis and Pat Farrell. Now with one in the win column the RAMS could settle down and take each meet as it came.

The following weekend almost proved disastrous for the RAMS as they salvaged a 26-21 win over Fenton H.S., the 1973 state champs. The lead seesawed back and forth in this battle of skill and muscle. Then going into the heavyweight match Gordon was on top 23-21. Bob Holley then pulled out a 10-7 win to clutch victory from the jaws of defeat. The following afternoon Dunbar was the next victim for the now sky high RAMS. The 38-9 win over the south siders capped off a perfect weekend. After another week of grueling workouts the RAMS were once again ready for competition. This time it came in the form of the Lane Tech Indians, our rivals across the river. This was a tune-up for tomorrow's big one as the RAMS disposed of the demoralized Lane squad 37-11. On Saturday the RAMS ventured to Glenbrook North for a 4 team tournament. Although finishing a dismal last in team points the RAMS did have 2 tournament champs in the persons of Pat Kane and Rick Szpila. This early season encounter gave Gordon a taste of what they could expect from suburban teams. There was now only one more meet before the prestigious Kelvyn Park tournament, against Elk Grove. This proved to be another potential nightmare as the RAMS pulled this one out 26-25. This was one that would not be savored for long.

Kelvyn Park was now 11 days away. These would be the hardest working days of the season. Everyone with the purpose of preparing the team for one of the biggest tourney's in Illinois. The arduous preparations paid off to the delight of everyone but St. Laurence. Gordon had won the tournament for the second straight year and for the third time in four years. What surprised many people was Gordon's winning the tournament with no individual champions. Pat Kane, Pat Farrell and Steve Otis all took 2nd place. In 3rd were Art Alaniz and Bato Prostran. Rob Michell and Rick Szpila captured 4th while Mike Wijas took 5th and Warner Guzman 6th. St. Laurence, Gordon's arch rival in almost everything, took the back seat in this one as they finished second. Loyola was third with Carmel of Mundelein in 4th.

After only 3 days of rest the RAMS faced a revenge-minded St. Laurence team and a hungry Brother Rice squad in their first double dual of the year. Gordon once again emerged victorious by scores of 30-27 over Laurence and 35-15 over Rice. Standouts for Gordon in this battle of Catholic League powers were Mike Wijas, Pat Kane, Steve Otis, and Bato Prostran. They all went undefeated for the day.

The following weekend the RAMS faced two more Catholic League foes in the persons of De LaSalle and Mt. Carmel. The RAMS, by now used to winning, were stunned by Mt. Carmel 24-24. What could have easily been a loss was salvaged into a tie by determination and hard work on the part of Gordon. De LaSalle was easily defeated by a score of 59-6. Although winning handily over the Meteors, Gordon was not soon to forget the Mt. Carmel fiasco. They would pay for it in the week ahead. The next night saw Gordon in the Holy Cross gym to take on the Crusaders. Putting last night out of their minds the RAMS handed out a 32-18 defeat to Cross. The people who produced the points in this one were Pat Kane, Mike Tuccori, Warner Guzman, Rick Szpila, Van Niforos, Pat Farrell, and Bato Prostran. The RAMS were now 9-0-1 and ranked 7th in the state of Illinois. Coming off the successful Holy Cross meet the RAMS were ready for Loyola and Evanston.

They took Loyola 50-5 and Evanston 43-9. A disheartened Loyola team forfeited 4 of their weight classes. These forfeits coupled with decisive victories helped the RAMS score an insurmountable amount of points. Evanston looked cocky and ready for Gordon as we walked into their gym. Their minds were soon changed. The RAMS took charge from the beginning and never relinquished the lead. Evanston had few moments to rejoice in this outing, as they lost 10 of 12 matches.

As the end of the season drew nearer the RAMS faced Mendel and beat them easily by a score of 38-20. Next came a battle with more suburban powers as the RAMS locked horns with Glenbrook South, Libertyville, and Deerfield, all on the same day. Gordon lost to Libertyville by a mere 5 points. Glenbrook South and Deerfield both fell victim to the RAMS. On that day a 32 meet win streak was broken, but a new streak had begun.

In the final weekend of dual meet competition the RAMS faced St. Pat's, Leo, and Niles East, the 5th ranking team in the state. In their final home appearance the RAMS blasted St. Pat's out of Gordon's gym 50-7. Our highly talented grapplers scored 36 points on 6 pins. On Saturday their were 2 Varsity teams in competition. One went against Leo, while the other took on Niles East. The second stringers handled Leo with no problem. The score was 51-13. The Varsity team did not fare as well. They were handed their second loss of the year 28-13. The RAMS had finally met their match. No matter what the RAMS tried Niles East was ready for it. Libertyville could be considered somewhat of a fluke, but this couldn't. The regular season was now over. They had finished it with a 16-2-1 record. Considering the competition they had faced they did a tremendous job. Now it was time for the tournaments. Catholic League and the State Qualifications.

Catholic League was first, but Gordon was second this time. St. Laurence would take the limelight for 1976. With statistics like these you would think we should have finished first. Out of 37 matches Gordon wrestled they were victorious in 25. They crowned 3 League Champions in John Tripoli 105 lbs., Pat Kane 119 lbs., and Heavyweight Bato Prostran. Steve Otis and Art Alaniz both took second place. At one point in the day Gordon was down 30 points to the Vikings. The RAMS picked up 29 of those points in the wrestle backs, an integral part of the tourney. In scoring those 29 points the RAMS won 10 of 13 matches. The other place finishers were Rob Michell, Mike Tuccori, Ed Cunningham and Pat Farrell in 3rd. Warner Guzman and Rick Szpila both finished 4th. The District meet was now a week away.

The district meet was held at East Leyden H.S., a suburban hot bed for wrestling. In this all important tournament the RAMS advanced 5 wrestlers to the next leg on the route downstate. Pat Kane took first place exhibiting total domination over all his opponents. John Tripoli also took first as he won all 4 of his matches. Our 3rd first place winner was Pat Farrell. Pat combined both Brains and muscle to outwit his foes. Both of our upper weights Steve Otis and Bato Prostran captured 2nd place. The following week at the sectional tournament, Pat Kane won first place and qualified to go downstate. While downstate Pat lost to the eventual state champ. This ended the 1976 year for the RAMS. Although a bit disappointing, it was nevertheless very productive.

The fencing season does not start until late in November, a time when winter's claws have long since started to paw away at the last shades of Indian Summer and faint memories of the summer past. But long before their 1975-76 season premier. Gordon's Fencers were out, pounding their way to a successful season. Many Fencers started their preparations for the season even as the ring of clashing steel faded away in their ears from the '74-75 season.

When September rolled around, everyone jogged out to Horner Park for ardous aerobic conditioning. Everyone of us raced against both the clock and each other, for we knew, in the immortal words of our Asst. Coach Tony Nishimura, "Ya gotta want it."

The hackneyed expression never sounded truer than on the 21st of Nov. when Wendell Kubik opened up our season by annihilating his Niles East opponent 5-0, in the first bout of our first match of our second year in the I.H.S.A. But that was not the end. Peter Goshi and Jim Jason also made mincemeat of their opponents; when it was all over the Foil team was 9-0. Three victories by the Epee squad put the meet in the bag, 12-6.

There was no let up after that easy victory. Even the victory against Glenn Kosirog lunges during the State Championships Semi-Finald in Champaign as his opponent tries to parry-4.

Niles West, last year's State championship team, by a score of 13-5 would satisfy no one. It was still out in the halls, practicing pairies, or in the room getting lessons.

"Lunge; Recover."
"Parry four and uposte."
"Sit!!!"

To the tyrs, these commands were part of an expanding universe. To the veteran, they represented a facet of the never-ending quest for perfection.

All the work paid off in the next meet, which was against New Trier West. Since the demise of Notre Dame's fencing team—the only other Catholic school to have had one—New Trier was the closest thing to an arch-rival we could get. The match was nip-and-tuck all the way. First New Trier, then Gordon, then a tie. It would go to touches—whoever had scored more hits would win. Then the talling was done, we walked away with a 9-9, 74-68 victory.

With a 3-0 record we were riding high—too high. We were all set to win our fourth in a row when hubnis struck. An understrength Maine South team took advantage of our overconfidence, and handed us an 8-10 loss, denying us first place.

Now a slightly hungrier and a much more bloodthirst Gordon Tech team went out looking for revenge.

FENCING

Frank Williams, George Pecherek, and Peter Goschi display their trophies garnered at the State Championships. Williams took 6th in Epee and Pecherek took third; Goschi placed sixth in Foil.

Frank Williams dares an opponent to attack.

Peter Goschi retreats on an opponent's fleche attack.

Goschi lets his opponent impale himself on his blade.

They found it in New Trier East, whom the Rams easily overwhelmed 14-4. So strong was our attack that five fencers—Jeff Pfahl, Peter Goshi, Jim Jason, Glenn Kosirog, and George Pecherek—were undefeated that day.

After Christmas vacation and a "scrimmage" meet against Marshall, the fencers again took on Niles East in a rematch. This time they fared even worse than on the first encounter. When the drubbing was over, they had lost 13-5.

Yet the important match was yet to come. The Varsity foil and Epee Tournament at New Trier West was to be a "preview" of the State Championships. It was an important tourney; one in which bad luck could be ruinous. Noone seemed to tick that day, and despite the efforts of epeeists George Pecherek and Lou Wilkins, the team gave a lacklustre showing and placed sixth.

Despite another 13-5 win over Niles West, the Team just couldn't get itself out of quagamire. A vengeful New Trier West took us apart, 5-13, and Maine South eked out a 3 Touch victory in a 9-9 tie with Gordon.

A lull in the combat followed the Maine South meet. During the eight day rest, four of our Fencers went to Troy Michigan to compete in the Junior Olympics. Every year outstanding fencers under 19 from every division of the Amatuer Fencers League of America compete in this national competition. Peter Goschi competed in the Under 19 Sabre event; Bruce Ward and George Skzypczak fenced Under 16 Sabre, and Lou Wilins fenced in the Under 16 Epee event. No greater tribute could be paid to these men or to Heach Coach Peter Morrison than to say that they made up about 1/4 of the Illinois contigent of fencers J.O.'s.

After the J.O's, the season began to wind down; the State Championships were nearing. After two more "scrimmages", the fencing team concluded its season with an 8-4 season, winning 126 of 216 bouts.

Now, only the J.V. Foil Tournament and the State Championships remained. The J.V. tourney was first, and their performance was a portent of what was to come. The team consisted of Lou Wilkins, Bruce Ward, Gene Kummerer, and Ted Markovich. Everyone fenced superlatively, but Wilkins, with a 12-3 record, and Ward, 8-4, were standouts. The combined efforts of each fencer garnered a second place finish for the team. They missed First Place by only two bouts.

With this performance still fresh in everyone's minds, the Varsity team journeyed to Champaign for the State Championships. Our Team wasn't given much of a chance after the Foil and Epee Tournament earlier, but things were different now. Teams competed on the basis of total bouts won. Individual fencers competed in the regular tournament situation in which you had to be a top fencer in your pool to advance to the next round.

The preliminary round was rougher than expected, especially in Epee. Wendell Kubik blasted his way through his foil-pool, going undefeated, and everyone followed his lead. Despite a score from Frank Williams, who had to win his final bout 5-4 in overtime, everyone on our team, Wendell Kubik, Peter Goschi, Glenn Kosirog in Foil, Frank Williams, George Pecherek, Lou Wilkins in epee, moved out of the prelims. Only one other team could say the same!

The semi-final round contained both triumph and tragedy for our fencers. Frank Williams and George Pecherek were both hot, and each finished first in his pool to advance into the finals. Peter Goschi also moved up. But Wendell Kubik lost a heartbreaker which kept him from moving up. Lou Wilkins and Glenn Kosing also had their share of disappointments, and neither advanced.

In the final round, everyone

fenced their hearts out. George Pecherek out did himself. Fencing against competition of his calibre, he came alive. His game was classic; he kept his point and off his opponent's blade, letting them impale themselves on his point. His efforts gained him third place. Frank Williams and Peter Goschi both placed sixth, and the team as a whole placed third. Gordon Tech took home 1/3 of all the State Trophies.

In the final analysis, this year's fencing season cannot be condensed, into paragraphs, or represented by a few tarnishing trophies. It goes infinetely beyond that. It is summed up best, perhaps, by Tennyson;
"Oh love, they die in you rich sky,
They faint on hill or field or river;
Our echoes roll from soul to soul,
And grow forever and forever."

Frank Williams

Glenn Kosirog scores a counter-attack when his opponent misses.

WINTER BANQUET

At the end of the winter sports season there was a chance to look back. A couple teams didn't go as far as they hoped and other teams went further than expected. A few more breaks, one less for the basketball team, and things could have been different.

The Winter Sports Banquet was held on March 27, 1976. Coach Chubrilo gave out an award to each of his co-captains, Bill Madey got the Most Valuable Player award to no one's surprise and Carl Maniscalco won the Coaches' Award. In Wrestling, Coach McCann handed out the MVP to Pat Farrell and Mike Wijas won the Coaches' Award. Since the Fencing season had not yet been completed Coach Morrison held off the awards until a later date.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore year is a transitional one. Now that a somewhat confusing freshman year is over a student knows what to expect. Since he has just learned all the rules, regulations, customs, and traditions that make up Gordon Tech he feels that it is his responsibility to inform the new freshmen of them. If he takes this seriously he will help to build a positive school spirit. Unfortunately to most freshmen a sophomore is one who persecutes; to another sophomore he is a companion in comic antics; to a junior he is a pest; to a senior he is just a clown.

A sophomore is a perfect example of knowledge and over-confidence. He has the knowledge of the way things are done but none of the experience to really know how to change, improve, or benefit from that knowledge.

The object of Gordon's Foreign Language and Culture Clubs is to give the interested student an opportunity to experience the art, music, food, and customs of his own heritage and those of his fellow students. These clubs meet periodically to discuss activities, plan the Foreign Culture Week, and arrange field trips.

The Italian Club, under the direction of Dr. Nardi, is extremely active. They participate in the annual Foreign Culture Week - this year there were slide presentations given by teachers who had travelled and studied in Italy. On November 13 the club went to the Lyric Opera. They were accompanied by Fr. Cielsa and Mrs. Nardi and witnessed an elaborate performance of "Le Nozze Di Figaro" or "The Marriage of Figaro." The four hour performance gave these students a first hand experience of the traditions of their native land.

He gave his views on pride in the heritage that produced us. All people should be proud of their racial, ethic, backgrounds. That is what makes a democratic society rich. During lunch periods an all Black Rock Band gave performances in the Gymnasium. Another activity sponsored by the Brothers Club was the trip to Johnson Products.

Slide Presentation of Switzerland Given in Library

On October 18, 1975 Mrs. Clark and the German Club sponsored the Oktoberfest, an annual celebration at Gordon. The three hundred people who participated experienced a miniature version of the actual German celebration. The festivities featured varieties of German food including potato salad, bratwurst, sauerkraut, and German beer. Entertainment was provided by a German band "Ach Du Lieber Bun" and a dance group "Donauschwaben".

JUNIOR RING CEREMONY

The gymnasium was filled on the evening of Thursday April 27, 1976 with juniors and their parents. The annual Junior Ring Ceremony was under way. At Gordon we like to mark this event with seriousness and prayer not as some other schools do by just passing out rings in homeroom or offering them for sale in the bookstore.

The evening's activities began with the celebration of the Eucharist which was followed by the blessing and distribution of the class rings. Juniors and their parents took part in this ceremony to make their accession to positions of leadership and seniority in the school.

After the liturgical functions in the gymnasium all moved to the cafeteria for a social gathering with the faculty. Fr. Mitrenga was the main concelebrant of the Mass. The liturgy and all of the other functions associated with the Junior Ring Ceremony were organized by a group of juniors under the direction of Fr. Richard McGee.

Fr. Mitrenga is seen here during the recitation of the Profession of Faith.

Junior Steve O'Hayer is seen here receiving his ring from his homeroom teacher, Mr. Beitz, who is first giving the ring to Mrs. O'Hayer to give to her son. Hugh O'Malley is next in line.

Representatives of each of the junior homeroom hold trays with class rings as Fr. Mitrenga insences them during the blessing of the rings.

Len Aremka receives his ring from Fr. Blaski as homeroom representative Ron Boehm stands by.

George Patras looks a little puzzled as does Fr. Fred Ciesla as they try to locate George's ring on the tray.

Bill Miller's mother is quite proud of the way the Gordon Tech Class Ring looks on her son's hand.

At the conclusion of the liturgical portion of the evening's activities the recession is led by Orvin Kaczpryk and the religious who took part in the ceremony: Fr. Fred Ciesla, Brother Frank, Fr. Mel Rybarczyk, and Fr. Ron Dernick are seen here.

JUNIOR RING COMMITTEE

On May 1, 1976 the class of '77 held their Ring Dance in the "Riverside Room". The plans for this dance were begun in January; for the first time students were required to make an initial non-refundable deposit on their bid so that accurate plans could be made for refreshments and decorations.

The gym was decorated with an early American setting in keeping with the theme of the dance "From the Beginning". Log cabins, a wishing well, mountainous landscapes, and a park lane adorned the "Riverside Room" and the gym lobby. About 300 couples attended the dance.

"Cottonmouth" began to play at exactly 7:30 before most of the couples had arrived. They played both hard and soft rock music with a tendancy to play more hard stuff. Their rendition of Emerson, Lake and Palmer's "From the Beginning", the theme of the dance, brought almost everyone to the dance floor.

This couple enjoys one of the few slow dances that "Cotton Mouth" played.

Jim Blake and his date for the evening seem to be having a good time.

COTTONMOUTH

Music for this event was provided by "Cottonmouth" a soft to hard rock group. Notice the special smoke effect on the stage.

Mike Mannion and his date take a refreshing break from the dance floor at the punch bowl.

This shot of the dance floor reveals Mario Lona and Ron Sieczkowski but doesn't give us a very good shot of the girls they are dancing with.

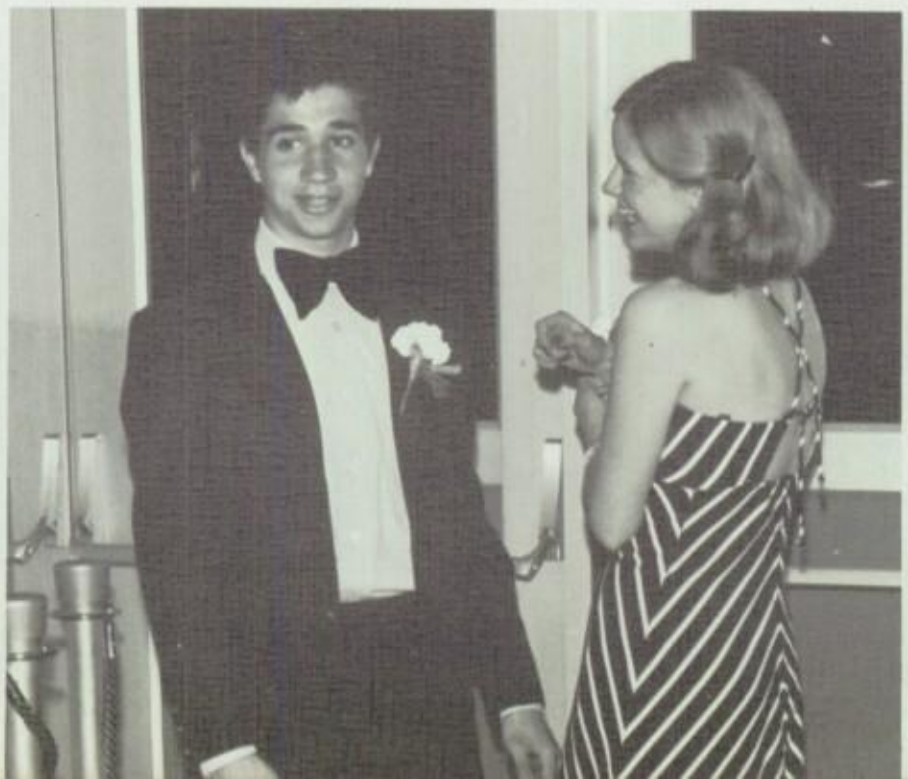
Tony Mineo, a member of the Junior Ring Committee, and his date spend a few moments sipping punch at their table.

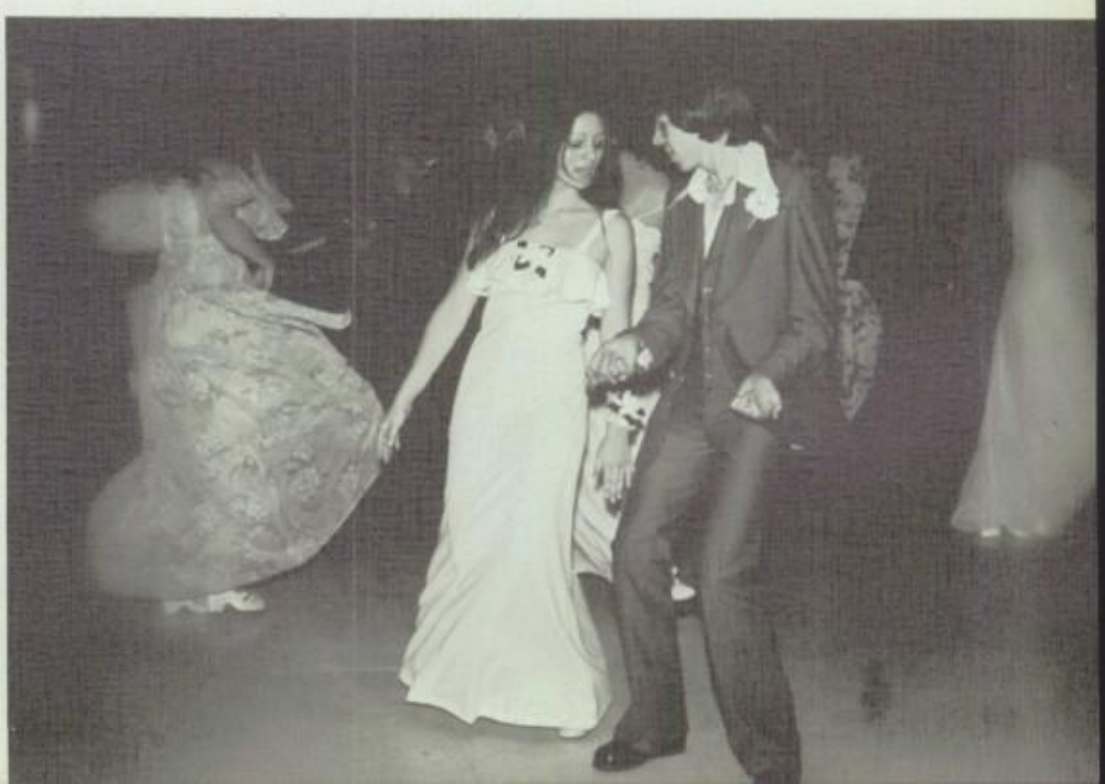
Brother Bill can be seen again on the dance floor.

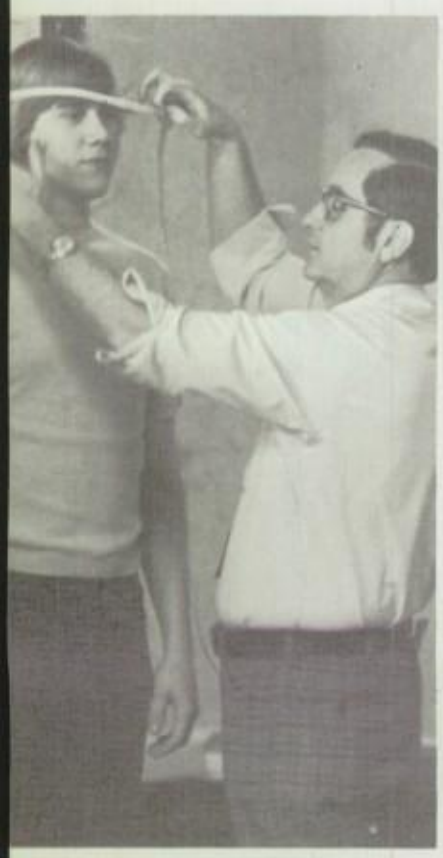
Kevin Honaker and his date seem to be having a good evening; Kevin was also a member of the planning committee.

Carlos Sintes and the young lady whom he took to the Ring Dance are about to step out for a bit of fresh air.



Jim Blake and his girl seem to be swept up in a cloud in this soft-focused shot.





JUNIORS

Juniors Challenged With Positions of Importance

At the beginning of your junior year you begin to realize that you are really becoming an adult. Teachers no longer expect the antic behavior that is common to the sophomores. They look for serious application in the classrooms, dedication to the extra-curricular activities, support of school functions, and a generally mature attitude toward school and career goals.

Juniors are put into positions where they have to make decisions. "What's going to happen after high school?" "Which college placement tests should I take?" "Where do I want my scores sent?" Juniors are placed in positions of leadership and importance: playing on varsity teams, officers of the student council, editors of publications - the challenge is there for them to accept or put aside. The difference is between being a man or a boy. Hopefully most accept the challenge and make the transition - proud, confident, and successful in their efforts.

PHYSICAL FITNESS TEAM

The Physical Fitness team is becoming accustomed to winning the State Championship; this year they took it for the fourth year running. Mr. Jim Miller, who took over the coaching duties at the beginning of the year, changed the training tactics used previously. Miller's tactic was to put the team in high gear in the beginning of the year and to keep them there all the way to the championships - a goal which he accomplished.

This year's team raked up a total of 2192 points which is five hundred points higher than last year's champs. Even though the team beat last year's scores they missed the National Championships by two points placing fourth in a field of fourteen states.

In February the Fitness Team was challenged by a faculty team known as the "Geritol Gang" to a three period match. The faculty lost in a two period to one decision.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL CHRISTMAS TOURNAMENT

Each year, Gordon's Athlete Department sponsors a Grammar School Christmas Basketball Tourney. The purpose of this tournament is to give the young basketball players an opportunity to compete against teams on a broader scale than they would be able to in their own leagues. There are team trophies and individual awards for the winners. The tourney also gives the basketball coaches a chance to scout the grade schools for future basketball stars.

For the second year running St. Demetrios Grammar School took the Gordon Tech Championship Trophy home.

Co-Ed RETREATS

For those students who demonstrate an interest there is an opportunity to make a weekend co-ed retreat at the Resurrection Center in Woodstock, Illinois.

These retreats are organized by Fr. Jim Schultz, Mr. Jim Ivers and other members of the Religious Education Department. Mr. Joseph Rodriguez, formerly a member of the Gordon Tech Faculty, also participates in these encounter-type gatherings.

Girls from Queen of Peace High School in the southwest suburbs join the young men from Gordon in their discussions of Christian life and spirituality in the Modern World.

Next year, there will be a full program of retreats at the Resurrection Center. The Congregation of the Resurrection has decided to operate the Center as a full-time retreat house for high school students and other groups. A resident staff of six people will conduct the sessions.

The setting at Resurrection Center is peaceful and relaxing - perfectly suited to a weekend of reflection and contemplation.

FOR 1976

Spiritual Enrichment Through the Eucharist

A regular feature of the program of development at Gordon is spiritual enrichment through the celebration of the Eucharist. Students have the opportunity to attend Mass in the school chapel before school begins. There are also scheduled Masses during the first three academic periods of the day; individual classes are scheduled - most students find themselves scheduled for about four Masses a year. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors also are scheduled for class Masses each semester.

The entire Gordon Tech Community gathers on special occasions for an assembly Mass. This year we gathered on four such occasions: to commemorate the Gordon dead, to give thanks as a group at Thanksgiving, to worship at the Rock Mass, and to mark vocation week and the founding of the Congragation of the Resurrection.

Fr. Mitrenga leads the other concelebrants in the Canon of the Mass.

VISITING MUSICIANS

Just as the Gordon Tech Jazz Band tours many other schools during the school year we are also visited by musical and singing groups from neighboring schools and organizations. The Concert Band from Northeastern Illinois University, The Steel Band from Roberto Clemente High School, and the Girls Chorus from William Howard Taft High School all visited us during the last school year. We also heard from a rock band composed of army recruits.

These visits are usually arranged so that the group can set up in the cafeteria and provide the largest number of students with entertainment. The Girls Chorus visit was only for one period - the fourth on May 12. They set up in the gymnasium and sang a medley of popular songs.

SPRING SPORTS

Every springtime sports enthusiasts at Gordon look forward to the Baseball and Track & Field seasons.

BASEBALL
TRACK & FIELD

Our national pastime - Baseball - is an extremely popular and strong sport at Gordon. Team spirit is great. Under the continued leadership of Coach Brother Frank for many years the RAMS have had consistently good seasons and have built a tradition of play which finds players from the past seasons coming back to cheer on the team.

Track & Field events attract a different type of athlete - the individual events appeal to them. The Gordon Tech Track teams have always been characterized by a few outstanding athletes who inspire the younger players. This year the Track team seemed to be plagued by bad weather.

BASE BALL

BASEBALL

The word was out. "Get the RAMS!" That must have been the slogan that was used by the rest of the Catholic League baseball teams to stop the RAMS from their third consecutive CL championship. The word got around quickly enough and the RAMS were knocked out, but not without a fighting effort.

The first day came around and the RAMS found that they had to fill a lot of starting positions. It wasn't like the year before when they had five of eight starters returning. This year was different. The RAMS had to work a lot harder to fill those spots and retain their crown.

The RAMS started well from the start. They opened with two slugfest matches against Mather and Von Steuben, winning them both, 12-8 and 12-7 respectively. After dropping a close 6-5 decision to Tilden, the RAMS bounced right back onto the winning track with victories over Schurz, 5-4, and Westinghouse, 8-1.

The RAMS next game was to show what they were made of as they were to take on suburban St. Viator. So on a cloudy and wet day, the RAMS prevailed with a close 3-2 win. Clemente was next and the RAMS dumped them 6-2 and to boost their record to 6-1.

In the next week, the RAMS were going to hit some rough water. Neighborhood rival, Lane Tech, dumped the RAMS 6-3 in a game that really hurt. Sullivan was next, and they rocked the RAMS' pitchers for nine runs while allowing only four. The RAMS then travelled to Niles East and were kicked out of there, 10-3.

The RAMS tried to get back on the winning track and they did, for one game, against Evanston. It was a close game which saw Jim Mueller and Warren Even rocket 350 ft. plus home runs. But that was it for the RAMS winning streak. Notre Dame of Niles held on for a 2-1 win over the RAMS. St. Pat's pulled their win out in the seventh inning, 6-5. Proviso East dumped the RAMS 9-5 and the RAMS were in trouble. The next day, the Catholic League season opened and the RAMS were coming off of a loss and a mediocre 7-7 pre-season. The RAMS opened against St. Laurence and would have to be prepared if they wanted to open with a win.

Tomorrow had come. The RAMS were loose and ready to play. Dan Patenaude, Warren Even, and Bob Spurlin all came through with two RBI's apiece to give the RAMS and Wally West an opening Catholic League win.

The "Cake" from Loyola were the next opponents for the RAMS. Pat Phelan, and Dan Patenaude each had two RBI's while Phil Mecurio, Kevin Kearns, and Dan May each had a ribbie of their own. Rich Schlitter and Scott Pirkins combined for a two-hitter as the RAMS rocked Loyola, 11-1. It looked now as if the RAMS were finally prepared to defend their CL title.

An exhibition game with Quigley North saw the RAMS and pitcher Ed Valenzano edge the Norsemen, 6-3. Bob Spurlin, Warren Even, Jim Mueller, Kevin Kearns, and Bob Burke each had RBI's. This relaxed the RAMS for the Friars of Fenwick.

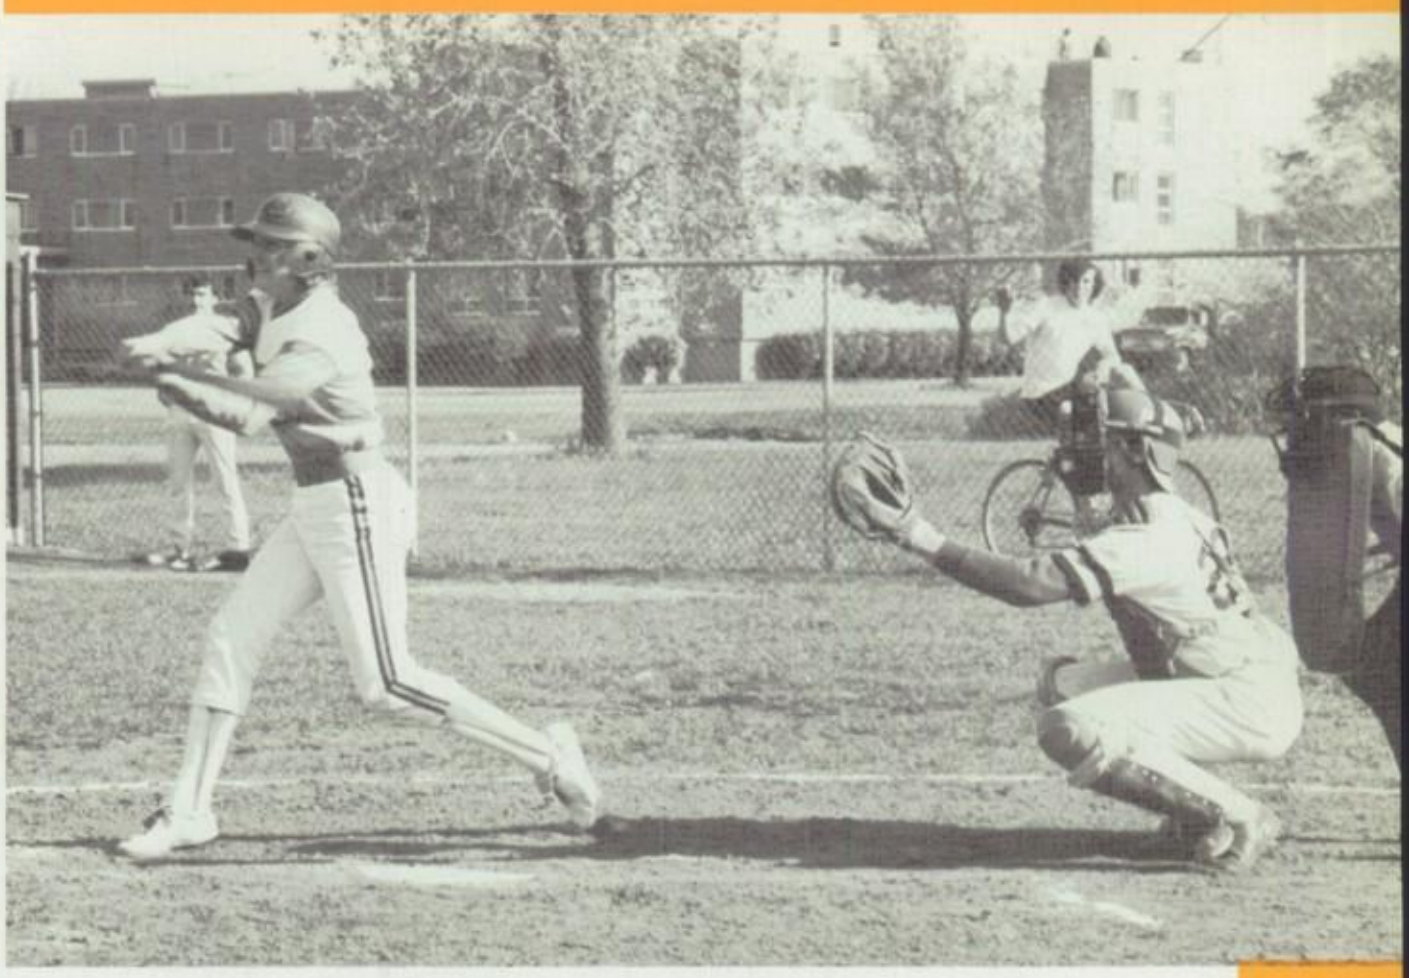
The RAMS were caught napping as a sleeper Fenwick team surprised an unprepared team and clobbered the RAMS 12-6. Brother Rice did the same to the RAMS as they ripped out a 7-1 victory for themselves. The RAMS were in a hole and had to get out.

The RAMS and Bro. Frank even tried a warm-up game against Roosevelt in which they won on a three-hit pitching performance from Scott Pirkins. Following this game, the RAMS played St. Rita on the same day. Bro made a few changes for this game. He brought up a sophomore to play third base. This soph was the brother of short stop Warren Even. His name was Bob. Now we had "Eves" and "Little Eves" on the same team. Brother Frank inserted Craig Loicano at the designated hitter spot, replacing Phil Mecurio who moved to catcher. Catcher Bob Spurlin went to first base and the final touch was placing football-playing Bob Cacioppo at second base and putting the speedy Dan Patenaude in centerfield.

St. Rita came out and scored in the first inning on a double and three walks off of starting pitcher Rich Schlitter. Bring on relief pitcher Stan Lesniak. "Stosh" retires the side. The RAMS score a run of their own on an error which scores Patenaude. The RAMS' Warren Even gave the RAMS the lead with a home run to give the RAMS a brief 2-1 lead. Rita came right back with a run in the fifth. It stayed that way until the Rita half of the seventh. Rita had a runner on third with two out and the next batter pops the ball up in short rightfield. A hustling second baseman Bob Cacioppo dives for the ball which falls inches from his glove. The RAMS got a runner as far as second base, but they couldn't drive him in. The RAMS drop a close 3-2 decision to the Mustangs.

The RAMS regrouped and knocked off Holy Cross 6-1 in nine innings.

Weber was next and despite a fine pitching performance from Scott Pirkins, the RAMS were dumped 6-1. Too many errors and not enough hitting was the cause for this one.



"Gentleman" Jim Mueller shows his hitting form in fine fashion.

Then the RAMS met Loyola for the second time of the season. A four-hitter from Larry Gates and RBI's from Kevin Kearns, Pat Phelan, Jim Mueller, and Bob Cacioppo gave the RAMS a 6-1 victory.

Wally West and Mendel's Collins paired off in a pitcher's duel and "Waldo" held up under the pressure longer as the RAMS got to Collins in the top of the tenth inning for three runs. Dan "Naude" Patenaude drove in one with a sacrifice fly to deep left-field and Warren "Eves" Even drove in the other two with a double. Final score: RAMS 3, Mendel 0. It had been a long time since the RAMS had won two in a row and they were willing to keep this streak going.

Another exhibition game, this time with Quigley South, gave the RAMS their third straight victory. The RAMS had to go nine innings this time but it was well worth it as Carl "Manny" Maniscalco and Jerry "Bhudda" Coca combined to hold off the Spartans. Kevin "Otto" Kearns, Phil "Merc" Mecurio, and "Naude" each had two ribbies while Bob "Spurz" Spurlin and Jim "Mules" Mueller both had one.

Hales Franciscan was no contest for the RAMS as they picked up their fourth straight win, winning 9-0. Pitcher Rich Schlitter threw a two-hitter to pick up the shut-out.

Mt. Carmel was the second opponent of the day and the RAMS picked up their fifth straight win. "Spurz" had two RBI's and Bob "The Beak" Cacioppo, along with the "Mules" each had a ribbie of their own. The RAMS won, 5-2.

The RAMS picked up their sixth and seventh consecutive victories by dumping Ridgewood and Fenwick, 8-3 and 11-1. The RAMS were peaking and were now ready for the State Tournament. Ridgewood was to be the RAMS' first opponent in the Tournament and they were "sky-high" for this game.

Bro. Frank and his team are having a serious meeting on the hill.

The "Merc" awaiting his next pitch.

*No Hit Game

The RAMS were leading 6-2 going into the bottom of the seventh. Starting pitcher Wally West had just given up three hits and had just got the second out when his pitching elbow popped. Call in Stan Lesniak. "Stosh's" first pitch was ripped for a two-run single. This made the score 6-4 with only one out to go. The next pitch was hit to "Little Eves" at third base who calmly pegged to "The Beak" who was standing on second base for the final out of the game.

Weber was the next opponent for the RAMS in the state tourney. Larry Gates turned in a fine pitching performance while Danny "Naude" drove in three runs and "Otto" Kearns, Warren "Eves," and Bobby "Spurz" each drove in one. The RAMS' defense held off a late Red Horde rally to pick up their ninth straight win, 8-7. This victory put the RAMS in the District Championship for the first time in their history.

Luther North had won the other semi-final match against St. Benedict to gain the privilege of playing the RAMS. The RAMS were shocked. They deserved better quality. They had no trouble in downing the Wildcats, 8-2. Errors plagued Luther North as they gave the game to the RAMS because of the errors. The "Merc" had three RBI's while Jim Mueller and Craig Loiacano each had one of their own to give Scott Pirkins the victory and Rich Schlitter the save. The RAMS were District Champions. They received a plaque for their efforts.

Catholic League was not over yet and the RAMS were still fighting for a play-off berth. The RAMS won their eleventh straight by shutting-out the Lions from Leo, 7-0. Stan Lesniak got his first start of the season and he responded well, allowing only one Leo runner to reach third base. Bob Spurlin had two RBI's and Kevin Kearns and Dan Patenaude each had one.

It was back to the state tourney again and the RAMS had to face Maine South. Despite a fine pitching performance from Larry Gates, the RAMS were denied any further advancement in the tourney. The RAMS lost, 5-3. Bob Cacioppo's two-run triple and an RBI from Craig Loiacano wasn't enough for the RAMS.

The RAMS had to re-group once again as they were still alive in the CL. They had to win one of the two remaining games to grab the final play-off spot. Weber was furious at the RAMS for being knocked out of the play-offs for the State and they were out for blood. They nipped the RAMS, 6-4.

Now it was do-or-die time for the RAMS. They had to beat DeLaSalle to get that play-off or the Meteors would get it instead. The RAMS were down 4-0 after the first inning, but fought right back and took the lead, 8-5 after three innings. Bottom of the sixth. RAMS are winning 8-7 and the Meteors get a man on with a walk. After two strike-outs, the field umpire calls a balk. The RAMS' bench goes up with fury. The ump had ruled that the pitcher, Stan Lesniak, had not paused for a second before delivering. Stan was pitching from the stretch. The rule had been changed before the season had started. The ump had made a mistake, but he was to proud to change his decision. The RAMS lost the game on the next pitch as the Meteor batter hit a ground ball to shortstop Warren Even who threw to first and first baseman Jerry Coca missed the ball. Two runs scored and the RAMS could not score in their half of the seventh. The RAMS lost the game, but still had a spark of hope as the RAMS protested the ump's decision of the balk.

The next day, the RAMS were having a team meeting when the commissioner's decision came in. The RAMS had lost the protest. The players' hearts sank when Bro told them the decision. What a way to end a season.

It was a dismal and unacceptable ending to an exceptional season. The RAMS finished with a 23-14 overall record, 8-6 in Catholic League play. The RAMS were the 1976 Norridge District Champions in the IHSA State Tournament.

The RAMS were led throughout the year by Dan Patenaude, Bob Spurlin, and Warren Even who batted .400, .360, and .330 respectively. Dan Patenaude, Bob Spurlin, and pitcher Wally West all were named to the Catholic League All-Star Team. Dan Patenaude was named the RAMS' Most Valuable Player for the 1976 edition of the RAMS at the Spring Banquet.

VARSITY TRACK

The "Runnin' RAMS" began the 1976 season, not really knowing what to expect. They had a good team, but not a great one. The question was — Could the youthful track team mature quickly enough to be considered strong league competition?

In the end, the RAMS performed respectably, compiling a 6-4-1 dual meet record and a fourth place finish in the Catholic League Outdoor Championships.

It all started months earlier. Several members of the team had been working out year 'round, and looked with excitement towards the new season. Individual practice for "veterans" began in November and team practice started immediately after Christmas vacation. Soon, many question marks were filled, and the young RAMS began to mature. But it didn't happen overnight! It took hard workouts every day: squats, stairs, 220s, calisthenics, These and other aspects of the workouts of the distance men, weightmen, sprinters, hurdlers and jumpers, helped to sometimes frustrate, but always aid the growing team. Then, the ZERO HOUR arrived!

The season began slowly for the RAMS. In the first dual meet of the season, Fenwick defeated Gordon in a close match-up. Taft also found the RAMS susceptible to defeat, as they too were victorious over the RAMS. Then the pendulum swung the other way. After being well represented by qualifying athletes in the U.S.T.F.F. invitational, the RAMS took on Phillips. It was no contest, as the RAMS easily put down their foes, to gain their first victory. This was a sweet victory and proved to be an important one. The RAMS now had momentum with them and stormed into the vital Catholic League Indoor Championships.

The meet was a successful one for Gordon, as the RAMS placed third for the second year in a row. Loyola and Bro. Rice finished ahead of the RAMS. An all 'round great team effort secured third place. Top performers included Jim Flannery in the two-mile, Martin Biernat in the shot put and the distance medley team of Stasinos-Brezovec-Olszewski-Flannery.

During the 1975 season, after a good indoor season, and a strong showing at the indoor championships, an optimistic Varsity Track Team looked forward to a successful outdoor season. That successful outdoor season never came. Would it be the same way this year?

The outdoor season opened against St. Pat, Fenwick and Leo at Hanson Park. The Friars, looking for revenge after the RAMS placed ahead of them at the championships, snatched first place. Gordon took second, with St. Pat and Leo following. During the Easter vacation, the RAMS competed in the type of weather which accented almost all of the outdoor meets - RAIN! In that meet, the RAMS competed in their only tie of the year - with Luther N. However, Gordon did defeat Holy Cross. Facing the tough Marist team was the next assignment for the "Runnin' RAMS". The RAMS dropped this meet, however, as the Marist squad won easily. The final dual meet of the year arrived and Gordon faced Ridgewood and Elmwood Park. The RAMS easily smoked Elmwood Pk., but were overcome by Ridgewood. Two important invitationals remained - the Notre Dame "Don" relays and the Brother Rice relays.

The RAMS surprised all competition in the prestigious "Don" Relays, placing second in a field of sixteen teams. Topping Gordon by only 3½ points was one of their most formidable Catholic League opponents - Loyola. The RAMS topped all schools in the relays division of the meet. Gordon set both school and meet records at Notre Dame. At the Bro. Rice relays, the RAMS performed well on an individual basis. It was now time for Catholic League.

The RAMS had been looking forward to the Outdoor Championships for a long time. It now arrived. Everyone seemed to be ready for the meet. Coach Berger moved up several top Frosh-Soph performers to the Varsity, hoping for that million-in-one shot - The Championship! But, the dream wasn't fulfilled as Bro. Rice took the title, and the RAMS placed fourth. Amid the disappointments, top performances were turned in by Jim Flannery in the two-mile and the two-mile relay team of Stasinos-Safranek-Maloney-Olszewski.

The Track Team now turned its eyes to the State playoffs. The qualifying athletes intended to do the job in the districts. They did, as the RAMS placed a strong eighth, compiling 11-1/5 pts. Martin Biernat became the first athlete in Gordon track history to qualify for the State Championships.

John Olszewski hands off to Jim Flannery in the record breaking distance-medley relay team.

George Stasinos passes off to Fred Brezovec in the grueling mile relay.

He did so by placing second in the shot put. M.V.P. Jim Flannery also earned a trip to Charleston. He took third in the two-mile run.

Downstate, Jim ran the best race of his high school career, placing fifth in the State! Jim ran a brilliant race and completed his two-mile event in a sizzling 9:10.4!

The 1976 "Runnin' RAMS" had many leaders. This youthful team will be returning many starters next year.

The RAMS' strength laid in the distance events. Here the RAMS were led by their M.V.P. Record Holder Jim Flannery and John Olszewski. The sprinters last year were led by Dominic Dugo in the 100-yard dash and Fred Brezovec and Bob Foss in the 440. Last year's strong relay teams were led by Dugo, Brezovec and Foss, as well as Reggie Mosley and George Stasinos. The standouts in the field events were Martin Biernat and record-holder Dave Trylovich.

The Frosh-Soph team enjoyed a fairly successful season, compiling a 9-2 dual meet record and a fifth place finish in the Catholic League Outdoor Championships. This team boasted many standouts including record holder Rudi Difiglia, Mark Boehm, George Trevino, Dave Wilson, Lou Herrera and record holder Reggie Mosley.

With hard work and dedication, the "Runnin' RAMS" 1977 squad will certainly be one of the strongest teams ever!

Jim Flannery was the recipient of the Most Valuable Runner Award. He is seen here taking the honor from Coach Berger.

On Saturday, June 5, 1976 the Spring Sports Banquet was held in the gymnasium - dubbede the "California Room" for this festive occasion. The head baseball coach from neighboring Roosevelt High School served as toastmaster. Mr. Pat Layden has been associated with Brother Frank and Gordon's Baseball team for many years. Coach Brother Frank announced the winners of the Most Valuable Player Award and the Coaches Award. These went to Dan Patenaude and Tom Leva respectively.

Track Awards were presented to Jim Flannery and Reggie Mosley by Coach Berger. Jim was the Outstanding Runner of the year and Reggie received the Coaches' Award.

Letters and numerals were distributed to athletes from all teams and mothers of the senior baseball and track men were presented with a crucifix by Fr. Mitrenga, the Principal.

One of the main events of intramural activity is Sports Night which was held this year on April 8. The sports consisted of 13 boxing matches, 1 on 1 basketball championships, a ping-pong exhibition, and the much awaited Doctors of Doom vs. The Masked Madmen Wrestling match.

The match was taken by the Masked Madmen who came back after losing the first fall to win the best of three contest. In the third round the wrestlers went berserk and all six climbed into the ring. The Gray Fox singlehandedly crippled the three doctors for life and then went on to hospitalize the ref for spite.

Fr. Zinn's Freshman Homeroom 204 won the Principal's Trophy for having the most points in Freshman Intramural competition.

Junior Homeroom 610 which is supervised by Coach Dan Zajac took the Junior Award - the Physical Education Department Trophy presented by Coach Jim Proffitt.

Mr. Dave Proffitt's Sophomore Homeroom had the most points in Sophomore competition and were awarded the Athletic Director's Trophy by Coach Tom Winiecki.

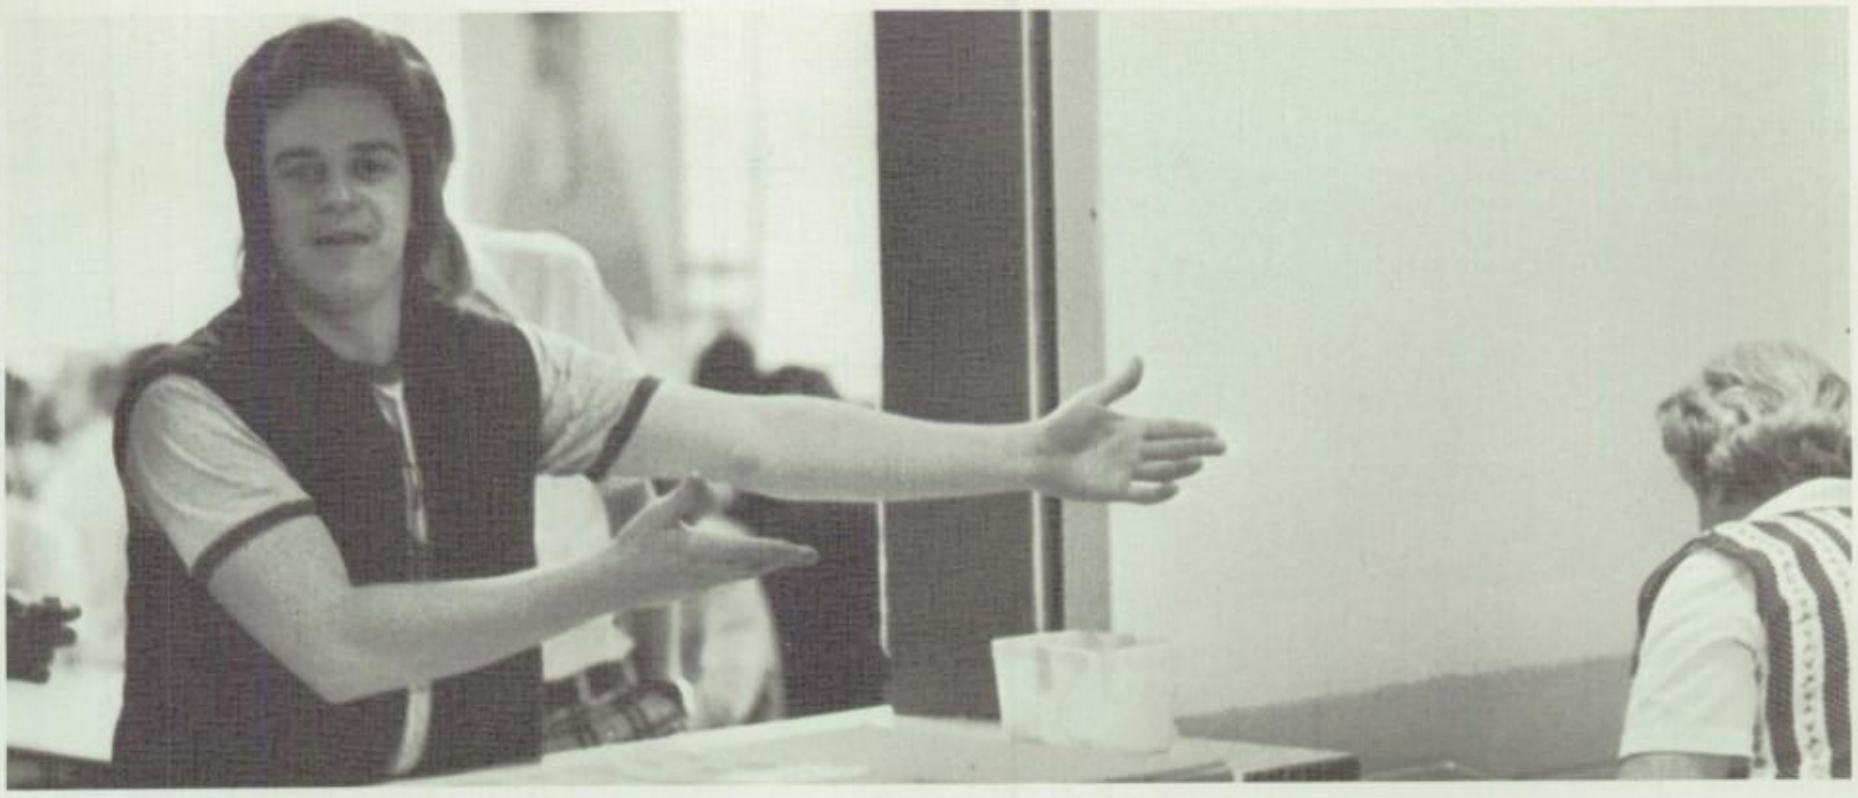
SENIORS



The Gordon Tech Graduating Class of 1976

Everyone looks forward to his senior year in high school. It is a year that you began thinking about when you were a freshman. The surprising thing is that it is so similar to the three years that came before. The same classroom requirements, extra-curricular activities, sports, teachers, and classmates are all here. The big difference is that you are number one-on top of the heap.

The interesting fact is that you don't have to let anyone know about it. All during sophomore year people went around making sure that no one thought they were freshmen. In the junior year a lot of guys like to have freshmen and even some sophomores thinking that they are already seniors. "You mean he's only a junior - I thought he ran the place."

For a senior there is no need to pretend. He's there and everyone knows it. There are subtle reminders: cap and gown measurements in the main lobby, special assembly Masses in the gym when seniors sit on the Main Floor, morning intramurals. ACT and SAT testing, announcements of Scholarship winners and National Merit Semi-Finalists and Finalists, choosing prom committee representatives in homeroom, the Senior Portraits for the TECH-Log. Captains of the sports teams, editors of publications, officers of clubs and organizations - all of these people are seniors.

The senior comes to the last quarter of the school year with mixed feelings. He's really glas to be getting out of high school but deep down he's unhappy about leaving Gordon, leaving the classmates who have shared much of the happiness and sadness of the past four years, leaving the teachers he has come to know through some hard times and some good times. It's all rather shocking on that day late in May when Fr. Malczyk introduces you to everyone as "the Alumni of 1976".

CLOCKWISE
In the classroom seniors are quieter, more thoughtful than they had been previously - at least during the first semester.

The same process of examinations continues through the fourth year just as it had before.

For seniors there are some special occasions - even something as trivial as being measured for caps and gowns becomes an important moment.

STUDENTS TRAVEL TO HISTORIC EAST COAST: VISIT

BICENTENNIAL SCHOOL TRIP

The school trip this year was a Bicentennial Bus Tour of the East Coast. The students and teachers who participated in the trip covered twenty-three cities in sixteen days. "Today's Tuesday; this must be Boston."

The tourists visited cities such as Gettysburg, Washington, Mount Vernon, Richmond, Philadelphia, Valley Forge, New York, Lexington and Concord, and Detroit.

They also visited places like the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the F.B.I. headquarters, Ford's Theatre where President Lincoln was shot, the National Archives, the Capitol, the Supreme Court, the White House, Arlington National Cemetery, the Smithsonian Institute, the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, Annapolis, the campuses of M.I.T. and Harvard, the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, Niagara Falls, Goat Island, and Horseshoe Falls.

The group was impressed with the numerous historical sights that they saw. In many cases they stood on the very places where our American history was formed years ago.

There is nothing that helps to build a good school spirit like competition in athletics between students and faculty members. This year the Physical Fitness team and the hockey team both challenged faculty squads to games. A regular feature of Sports Night has always been the tag-team wrestling matches in which anonymous faculty members grapple with one another - and this year with the crowd. This year the senior Intramural all-stars also challenged the faculty to a match. Once more the "Geritol Gang" was forced to bring their sneakers out of mothballs.

So that the game could be judged somewhat impartially the officals were student-teachers who were doing their practice teaching at Gordon. The senior all-stars took the opening jump shot but the game remained close all the way to the last period.

The stands in the gym were packed with students from study halls and lunch periods. An exciting moment came when Bro. Frank was put in the game to attempt some of his famous set shots.

The all-stars took the game in a close victory but everyone involved had a good time. The action under the boards was tough - some of the football coaches playing a good game of animal ball.

MURAL DEDICATION DANCE

Do you remember the first time you walked into the cafeteria this year? Splashes of color were brought to those unsuspecting eyes, paintings of all your favorites, and then some. How did it all get there?

Way back in June of '75 the now well-known Gordon Tech Mural Group saw an empty wall and attacked. The theme "History of American Music" was decided on because "it's pretty prevalent in the cafe."

The supervisors of this project, Ms. Kathy Kozan (Moderator and Art Teacher), Zenon Halamaj, Chuck Roberts, Mario Moreno, Ted Kozlowski, and Tony Mujica all made sure that the mural got off the ground and onto the wall.

First of all the walls had to be washed down to get a clean base. Then the undercoats were applied, and gradually and carefully the mural group worked up to what we have now. Then it was varnished so that it would be easier to clean. When the mural was complete, the group sponsored a dedication dance. Three bands - Atlantiz, Jade, and Stat - played for the dance.

LOCAL FORMALWEAR STORE STAGES FASHION SHOW IN GT GYM

GINGISS FASHION SHOW

Not too many years ago the idea of a fashion show for seniors at Gordon Tech would have seemed preposterous. The very idea of a showing of formal wear would have been staggering since the proper attire for the proms of yesteryear was a simple white coat, bow tie, and black pants.

Styles have changed so much that a person going to a formal dance has to be well informed to know how to dress for the occasion. The Gingiss Formal Wear Stores in Chicago offer a service to the seniors at GT by staging a "Fashion Show" prior to the Prom.

The representative from Gingiss contacts the Prom Committee and arranges a date about a month and a half before the Prom. Members of the committee can volunteer to be "models" for their classmates. The mild embarassment of parading in front of a gym full of seniors is soothed by a sizable discount for the model if he chooses to rent from Gingiss.

From the looks of the people at this year's Prom a lot of fashion education must go on at these shows.

N.H.S. BLOOD DRIVE REACHES 50% OF ITS 1976 QUOTA

Ed Rottinger looks relieved that's it all over with and now he has his bandage to show he gave.

Mr. Jim Wuerffel, Chairman of the Industrial Education Department, goes through the preliminary examination before blood can be drawn.

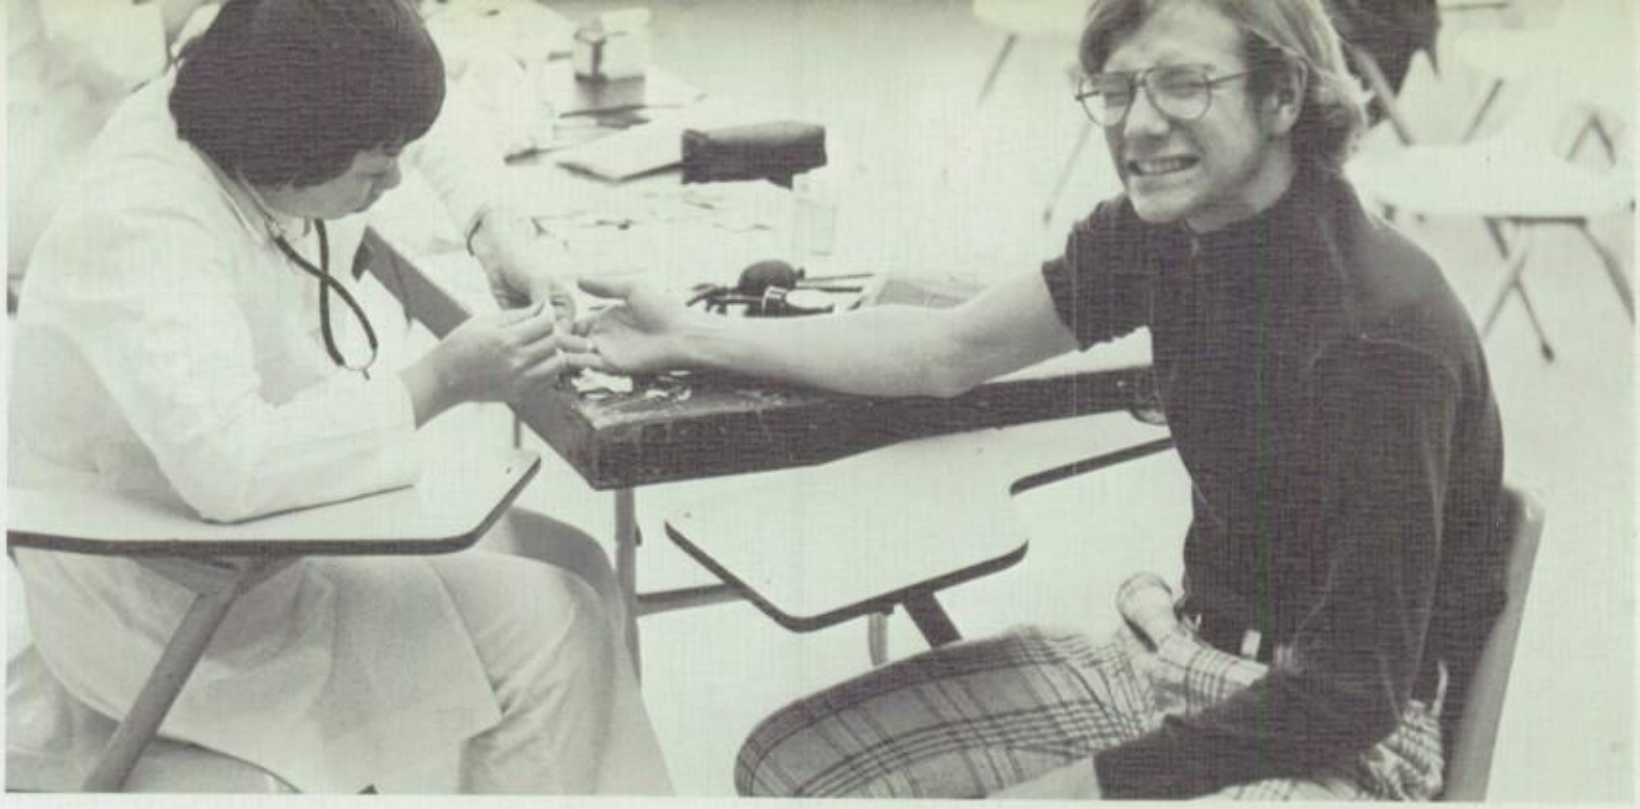
The entire process only takes a few minutes but for some people it can be quite exhausting and a little nap helps.



Bob Oakleaf grimaces as the medical attendant takes the small sample of blood as part of the preliminary workup.

N.H.S. BLOOD DRIVE IN SECOND YEAR

When the Blood Service Program approached Gordon Tech last year the National Honor Society quickly took over this worthwhile project. Dave Coyne (GT '75) took charge of the blood drive. The N.H.S. had posters in all the classrooms and bulletins in all the teachers' mailboxes to promote participation. They were able to reach their goal which was fifty percent of the 1975 requirement.

This year's chairman was senior George Murphy, who was assisted by Tom Socha and all the members of the National Honor Society. Teachers, students over seventeen, office staff, cafeteria ladies, and maintenance workers were all asked to donate blood.

The purpose of the program is to provide "blood insurance" for all the members of the Gordon Tech community and their families for one year.

Donors were carefully screened by the medical personnel from Blood Services Program. Temperature and blood pressure were taken along with a small sample of blood and a brief medical history. Many donors were rejected for something as minor as a recent cut or a cold.

After the donations the donors were given an opportunity to recover - refreshments were served to help them gain back their strength.

This year 264 pints of blood were collected which is more than fifty percent of the 1976 quota. The National Honor Society will be sponsoring a drive in the Fall to meet the remainder of the quota.

After Wayne Salata has had his blood pressure and temperature taken he will be moved to the next room for the donation.

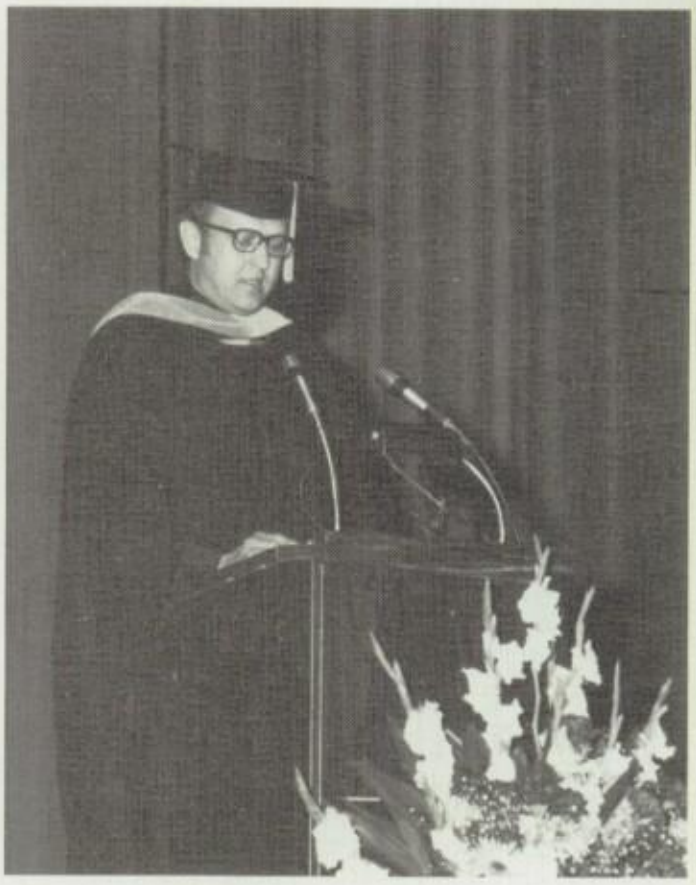
GRADUATION MASS

On the evening of May 27, 1976 graduating seniors and their parents came together with the faculty to join in a liturgical celebration. Members of the religious faculty and other priests who are related to graduates con-celebrated the Mass. The homily was preached by Fr. Mitrenga, the principal.

Members of the National Honor Society received their gold hoods at this ceremony and they exchanged their orange and white tassles for the gold ones worn only by members.

After the Eucharistic Banquet a social gathering took place in the cafeteria. Decorations had a patriotic flavor in honor of the nation's Bicentennial. Parents and faculty members had the opportunity to congratulate the seniors while enjoying the soft drinks, coffee, and cookies which were served by the Mother's Club.



Fr. Mitrenga addresses the graduates for the last time at the Commencement Exercises in Arie Crown Theater.

The principal distributes Communion during the Graduation Mass to junior Frank Libertore and Senior Mike Ward.

Members of the Gordon faculty, Mr. Ray Thorne, Brother Ed Jaszkowski, and Mr. Eugene Wleklinski receive from Father Frank Rog, the Provincial of the Resurrection Fathers.

GRADUATION CEREMONY

Fr. Bannon Speaks on American Virtues

The twenty-third annual Commencement Exercises took place on May 29, 1976 in the Arie Crown Theatre of McCormick Place. This is the fifth year that we have used this Hall for Gordon's graduation.

The commencement speaker was Rev. John Francis Bannon, S.J., of St. Louis University, an historian who spoke on the virtues which have made America great. Senior Thomas Arends delivered the Salutation. Music was provided by the Gordon Tech Concert Band under the direction of Mr. Stanley Shell.

More than twenty-seven graduates received scholarships and appointments to the military academics. Graduates were awarded their diplomas and Proficiency awards were given.

Senior Tom Arends, who placed first in the senior class, was chosen to deliver the Salutation.

The Rev. John Francis Bannon, S. J., Chairman Emeritus of the History Department at St. Louis University, delivers the Commencement Address.

Senior Hwan Kim is congratulated by Fr. Bannon after having received his diploma from Fr. Mitrenga.

This shot shows the size of the theatre; each graduate was seated with his parents during the ceremony.

Members of the faculty occupied the front seats which they took after filing in solemn academic procession.

GRADUATION CEREMONY

Tom Arends is weighed down with two proficiency awards (English and Religious Education) as he receives his diploma.

Mr. Stanley Shell leads the Gordon Tech Concert Band in the "American Civil War Fantasy" by Jerry H. Bilik.

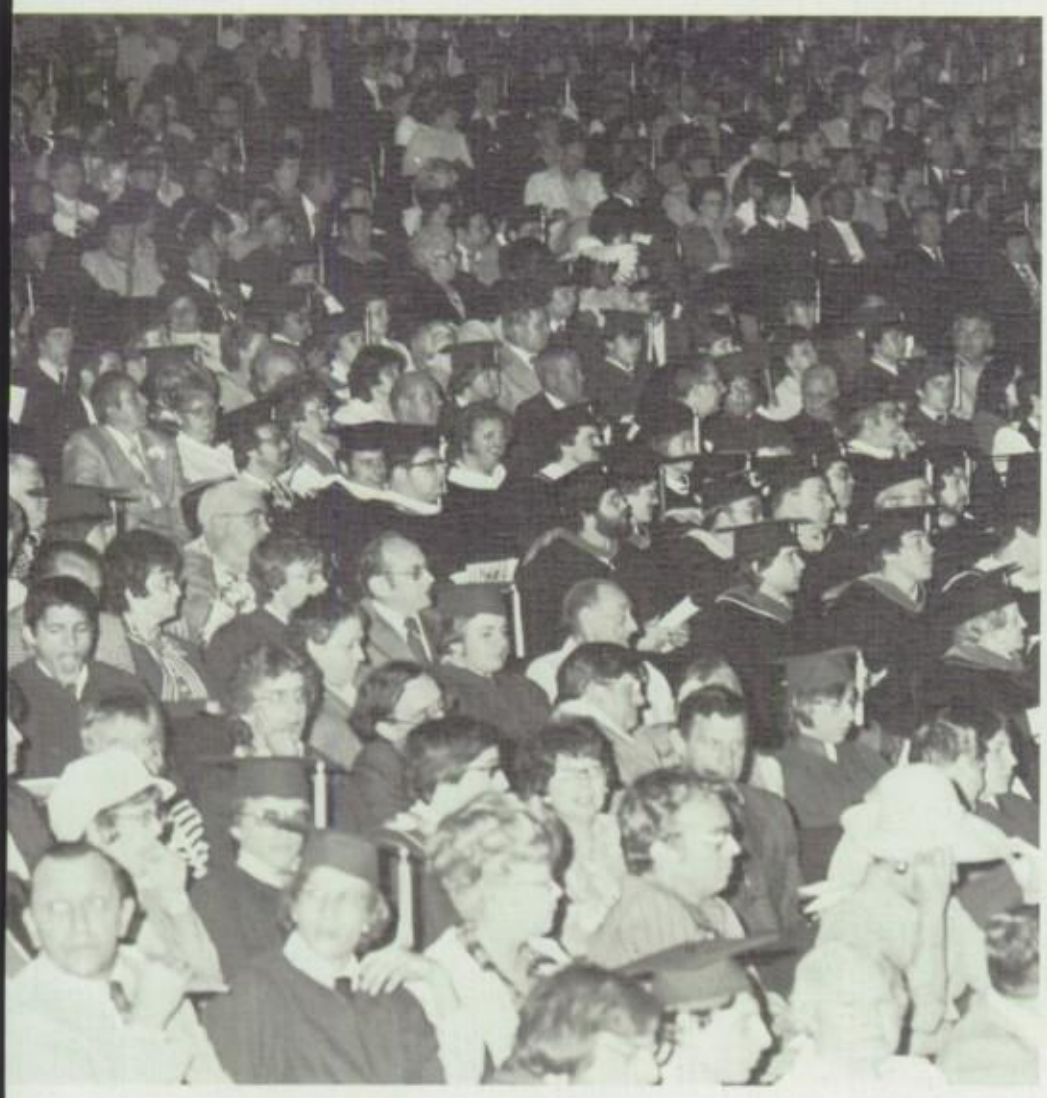
Senior Peter Boudreau looks pleasantly happy as he crosses the broad stage of the Arie Crown Theatre.

Fr. Fred Ciesla, the assistant principal, leads the graduates and all others present in the RESURRECTION PLEDGE.

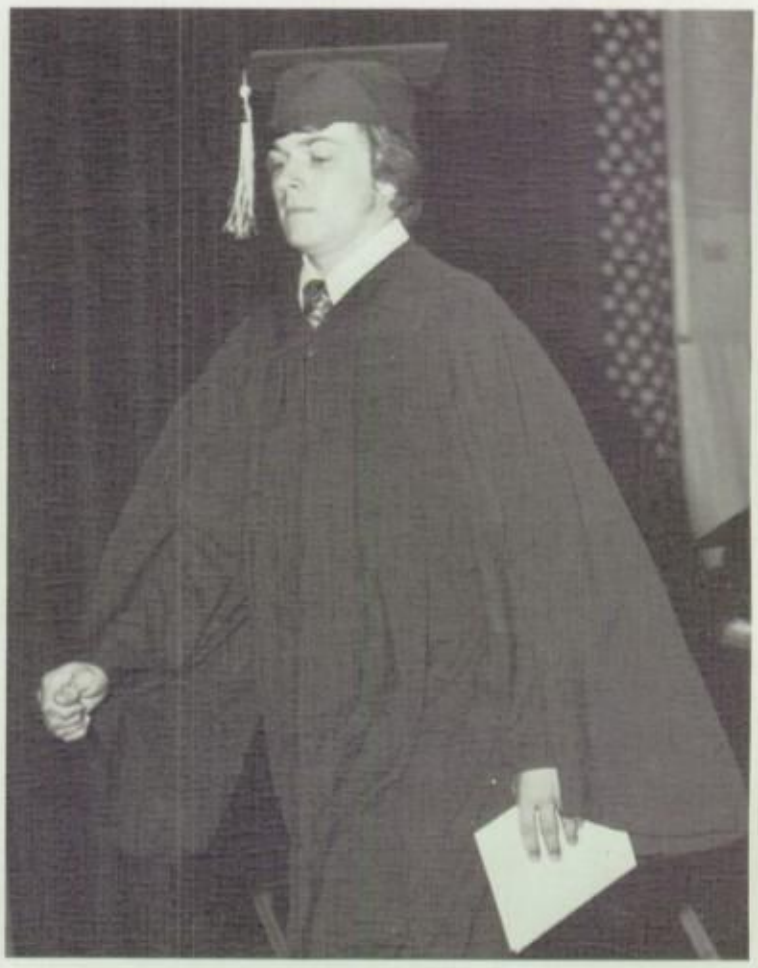
Rev. Joseph Malczyk, C.R. is the director of Student Activities and coordinates all ceremonies associated with graduation. Here he reads the names of each graduate.

During the Commencement address the faces of graduates and their parents reflect the seriousness of the occasion. Senior Vince Romano is seen here deep in thought.

Frank Sposito, a member of the National Honor Society, shakes hands with Fr. Bannon after receiving his diploma.



In this shot one can see many of the faculty and some of the parents and graduates as they listen to Fr. Bannon's address.



Herbert Boes strides confidently across the stage.

Faculty members file into the auditorium in solemn academic procession.

PROM

The Senior Prom for 1976 "Traces of Love" was held at the Lincolnshire Marriott Resort Hotel. The Dinner Prom began at 8:00 P.M. and ran until the music stopped at 2:30 A.M. There were more than 300 couples in attendance. Dinner consisted of New York Strip Steaks which were highly praised by all.

Music was provided by two bands. A dance band "Warren Bills and the Ted Weems Orchestra" and the popular group "Water and Wine" which has played at the last three Gordon Tech Proms.

The high point of the evening was the presentation of the Queens and their Court. For the first time in the school's history two Prom Queens were named by the selection committee.

The organization of the prom was handled by a committee of seniors headed by Ken Bialas. Fr. Joseph Malczyk is the advisor to the Prom Committee.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Gordon Tech Student Council is at the heart of all activities within the school. It is through the Council's authority that clubs are chartered and under its coordination that they are able to function smoothly. The structure of the Student Council is quite simple: there are three elected officers who are chosen by the entire student body - the President, the Vice-President, and the Secretary. The remaining members of the Student Council are the representatives and alternates elected by each homeroom and any students who are interested in joining to work for the improvement of the school. An advisory Council is formed by the officers and the members of that Council serve as committee chairmen for various activities and functions.

According to Fr. Joe Malczyk, C.R., the Director of Student Activities and the Moderator of the Student Council, before last year the Student Council really existed only in name. Mike Trent and Adam Szczepanski were the leaders of last year's Council and they sparked the Council to life so that for the first time the Council took an active part in the life of the school. Fr. Malczyk said, "It was through their efforts that the Council began its long and difficult task to establish itself as a positive force in building school spirit."

This year's Council came under some harsh criticism late in the year but if one looks at the situation objectively it is hard to find serious fault with the Council and its leadership. This Council has been extremely active. It all began with meetings that took place every week during the summer to plan the year and followed through until the elections of next year's officers. About twenty students attended each of those weekly meetings in the summer to plan for the coming year.

This year's activities included: a car wash, homecoming week and all its activities, the Big Brothers Program and its dances for freshmen, a Tootsie Roll Drive in which $2000.00 was raised and contributed to the Misericordia House, Grub Days and Tie Days, Two Roller Skating Parties at the Axle Roller Rink, a turkey raffle which raised $500.00 for the Neediest Children's Fund, Christmas decorations in the Main Lobby and the corridors, an essay contest, a Christmas play, the Pinball Wizard Contest, a Winter Dance - "Sometimes in Winter", an in-service day for Council members, the Student Court, and the "Rowdies". The Council also arranges for transportation to athletic events away from the school and members of the Student Council served on most of the Committees of Self-Evaluation for the North Central Report.

Although this year's Council was active not nearly enough students took part in its activities. It is almost impossible to imagine how successful the council would be and how strong school spirit would be if the representatives who are elected from each homeroom attended all the meeting, joined committees, and took an active part in the work of the council. As it now stands the work is done by the "loyal few" - the ones who make it past the difficulties of sometimes tedious meetings and discussions of plans to actually put themselves in action. Unfortunately this problem is not common just to the Student Council but to most activities in the school. The members who do stick it out until the end are the ones who give more than 100% to compensate for those who gave up earlier in the year. To these we owe a word of thanks. They make the rest of us look good.

This year's officers were Joe Longo, President; Mark Bialk, Vice-President; and Mark Matz, Secretary. Mark was the first junior ever elected to that high office. They can be proud that the Student Council accomplished what it did during the last year; they have truly developed the Council which they took over in the beginning of the summer.

For next year the newly elected officers are Mike Giannini as President, Frank Maravelias as Vice President, and Rich Pondel as Secretary. Since they all ran as a "ticket" we are confident that they will be able to work well together and continue the work of the last two years' Student Councils. They have already begun planning for the coming year and intend to hold meetings during the summer to lay the groundwork for another year of Student Council growth.

Student Council members joined with Kiwanis Key Club members to participate in the Knights of Columbus "Tootsie Roll Campaign".

This was the first year that members of the Gordon community participated in the Knights of Columbus Campaign. The proceeds from the drive are used for special programs that benefit retarded children.

PANEL

At the conclusion of the Fall Festival the pinball machines which were used were left in the school. Student Council members seized this opportunity for a council project.

The project was called "The Great Pinball Wizard Hunt" and more than eighty students registered for the contest which was held in the cafeteria during each lunch period.

Three finalists, Steve Kaskovich, Jerry Paulson, and Mike Philippe were in the last match. They each played one game on all three machines. Jerry Paulson took the top prize recordings of "Tommy" and "The Who by Numbers".

Hall and Traffic Guards provide a real service to their fellow students. Sometimes this is hard to realize because so many people see them as intruding on their freedom.

In actuality they protect us from some of the undesirable elements in the school community. After the Hall Guard program began a number of years back the incidence of locker theft dropped drastically. It may be hard to accept this fact but if the Hall guards were disbanded now we would undoubtedly see a rise in locker theft.

The Hall Guards check all students who are in the corridors during class periods for passes; check to make sure that lockers are locked; and direct visitors to the Main Office to obtain passes.

The Traffic Guards are on duty after all dismissal periods to make certain that safety is maintained in the streets and at the bus stops. They supervise the lines at the buses and attempt to eliminate jay-walking.

During the time when others are in class hallguards check to make sure everything is securely locked up.

BOOKSTORE

BOOKSTORE STAFF: John Piecuch, Ken Bialas, Brother Bill Hallas, Mr. Ted Sadowski.

AUDIO VISUAL

Beginning with those first hectic booksale days in August and throughout the entire school year, Gordon's Bookstore staff works hard to supply the needs of every student.

The store's inventory includes all the necessary equipment an efficient student could desire: books, pens, pencils, rulers, drafting sets, notebooks, and art supplies. All are conveniently available to the students.

Under the direction of Brother Bill Hallas, C.R. the bookstore has become one of Gordon's most efficient departments whose services are always available and furnished cheerfully.

The Audio-Visual Staff complements the services of the Bookstore by maintaining and distributing the school's supply of audio-visual machinery and equipment.

They also pick up and return films, film strips, tapes, and records which teachers have requisitioned from the Chicago Public Library.

Because of the Audio-Visual staff's comprehensive service teachers find it convenient to broaden the students' experience and deepen their learning through the use of these materials.

KEY CLUB

Not only is the Kiwanis Key Club one of the oldest organizations at Gordon, but it also has one of the largest memberships and a legacy of selfless dedication to service. Members of the Key Club are at the service of the community and donate their time to work for worthy causes. This year Mr. Jim Maggiore was appointed as moderator and the club accepted the transition smoothly.

The clubs major activity each year is the Kiwanis Peanut Sale. Members rise early and meet at the Harris Restaurant for breakfast, the Harris brothers are members of the local Kiwanis chapter, and then dismiss to their posts to sell peanuts. They work until noon when they return to the school to count the proceeds. All of the money collected goes to Kiwanis Fund for Children. Gordon's chapter of the Kiwanis also works with other fraternal groups such as the Elks and the Knights of Columbus in their fund-raising activities.

The Gordon Tech Chapter is also active within the school and figure prominently in the planning of school functions such as Homecoming and Dances. Kiwanis members hold leadership roles in the student council. They also cooperated in the "Shamrock Against Dystrophy" drive with the N.H.S. this year - their combined efforts raising more than seventeen hundred dollars.

The main event of the year for members of the Kiwanis Key Club is the annual peanut day.

Gordon Tech students who are members of Kiwanis are assigned to an intersection in the area where they solicit funds from motorists and pedestrians.

These students proudly display their purchases of peanuts from a Kiwanis member.

This year the members of the Key club affiliated themselves with the Lions Club candy sale to benefit the blind.

Second Annual Speech Tourney Held

FORSENIC SOCIETY

Although it is not a very well known club around the school, the Gordon Tech Forensic Society is a very active one.

This year they sponsored their second annual Invitational Speech Tourney inviting forty-one schools to participate. Of these sixteen answered; fourteen schools would participate.

The competition was divided into eight categories: Original Oratory-a speech written and performed by the contestant; Oratorical Declamation-a speech written by someone else but performed by the student; Prose Reading - the student reads a selection of prose; Verse Reading - the student reads selections from poetry; Dramatic Interpretation - the student does a dramatic interpretation of a segment of a serious play; Humorous Interpretation - the student does an interpretation from a comedy; Extemporaneous Speaking - the student draws a topic and then has thirty minutes to prepare a seven minute speech on the subject; Impromptu - the student has five minutes to prepare a three minute speech on a drawn topic.

At the end of the tourney Gordon Tech's team took fourth place; senior Sam Munoz placed second in the Dramatic Interpretation division.

Jerry Sommer drove the supply car to keep people at various intersections well-stocked.

Mike Zoch catches an unwary student just as he gets off the bus in the morning for his contribution.

RAMPAGE

Ram-Page staff members work many hours to produce Gordons' weekly newspaper. Through the Journalism course and their work on the newspaper the students learn many aspects of journalism from the legwork of gathering news and writing up their articles to the layout and production of the issue. From story assignment to paste-up day the students are thoroughly involved in bringing school news to the Gordon community.

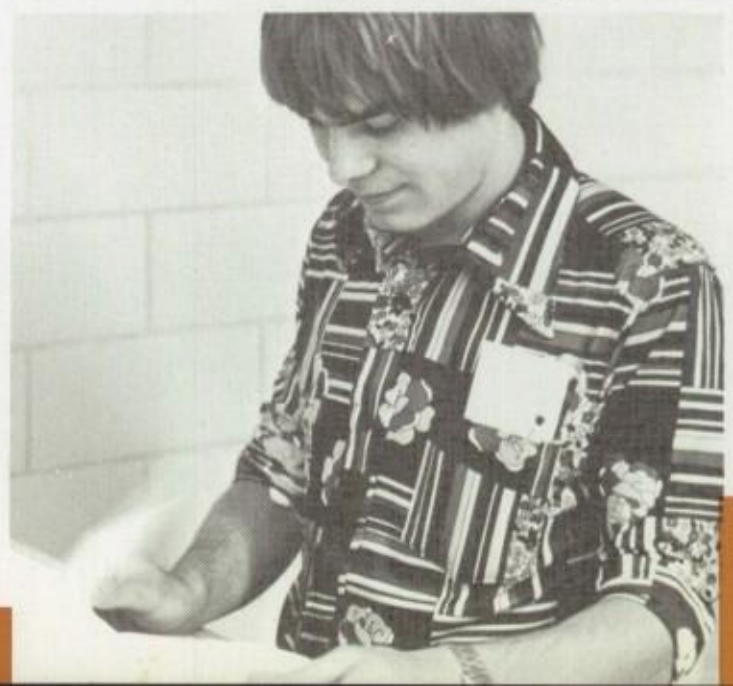
The paper contains news storeis about recent school related events, information on future events, updates on the alumni, other schools, and events of interest around the city. The Ram-page contains advertising of goods and services of interest to the students.

Journalism students and Ram-page workers progress from staff members up to positions of editorial responsibility. Students can work in many areas: news, sports, features, editorial writing, layout, design, cartooning, business, advertising, and circulation. Many students who stay on the staff for several years gain experience in almost all the varied fields of journalism.

Besides working on the newspaper and the yearbook staff members of the Ram-page and the TECH-Log produce the RAM-REVIEW - a magazine describing Gordon's athletic achievements. This magazine contains articles on all of the aspects of Gordon's athletic programs, summaries of the previous seasons, updated school records, and forecasts for the year ahead.

In three of the last four years Gordon has also had a literary magazine containing creative writing and art work by students and teachers. While the magazine was not produced this year it is hoped that the publication will reappear in the near future.

During a Friday Homeroom period Kurt Lange and Mark Bialk prepare papers for distribution.



News Editor Bialk takes a quick look at the finished product before releasing this edition.

Twenty-Seven Issues Published

Mike Philippe, co-Editor of the Ram-page, assists Mrs. Susala in the preparation of the program for Gordon's Homecoming game against Loyola.

Mike Philippe, Mr. Perrin (Tech-Log Advisor), Mr. Dermody, and Mark Bialk discuss plans for both publications.

TECH-Log 1976

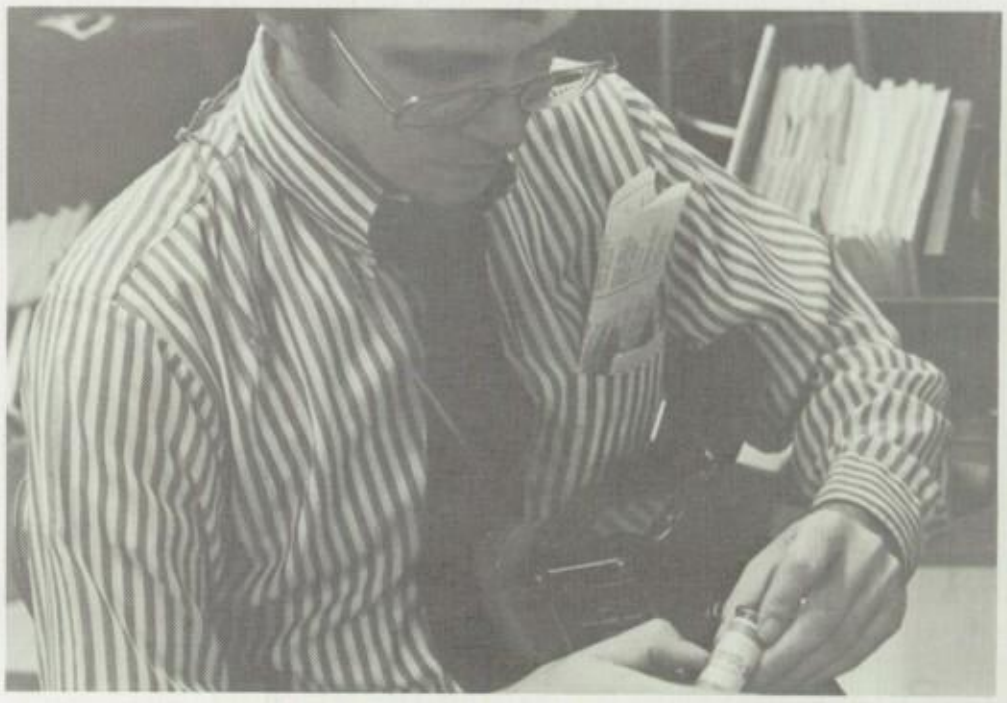
The TECH-Log will furnish years from now the stimulus for many memories of high school years - events and persons we might otherwise forget.

The TECH-Log staff attempts to capture the spirit of Gordon Tech in photographs and in words and to present it in all its variety in a book.

There is the daily routine and boredom of tedious classroom drill, the exhilaration of academic or athletic success, the joy of learning and discovering new things about our world and ourselves, the sadness associated with failure or defeat, the excitement of meeting new friends, the wonder of new experiences. All of these experiences and many more force us to grow and change into men of responsibility and wisdom. It is fitting that they be recorded so that we may recall them later in life.

The success of a yearbook is best judged by its power to stir us to laughter and tears months and years after we have left high school. We will see the face of an almost forgotten friend or recall the Prom, the Ring Dance, an assembly, ball games, classmates, teachers - and for a moment we will return to Gordon and be happy that we were part of it.

Every student in the school is represented by a file card which indexes his name for the yearbook; his underclass picture or senior portrait is attached by staff members.



Mr. Robert F. Perrin, the Advisor to the TECH-Log, loads a new camera with film to show a staff member how the process should be done.

Junior Marc Chodera was appointed Editor early in the year; he drew up the master plan or "ladder" for the book.

Mr. Perrin and Kevin O'Donnell go over some of the vast paperwork that must be done to complete the book.

Progress reports on certain aspects of production are noted right on the box of file cards.

On the day when the 1975 TECH-Log arrived at the school the staff members who unloaded the trucks received their books and spread out on the floor to look them over.

Senior Eric Schurr looks over some of the copy which he wrote for the 1976 TECH-Log.

Kevin O'Donnell, who will serve in an editorial position on the 1977 TECH-Log, looks rather relaxed even though his work is far from finished.

Gordon's closed circuit television system has provided many educational and entertaining services and programs. The studio is equipped to tape and replay class projects, to broadcast live or taped programs for viewing on classroom receivers, and also to cover events in and around the school for broadcast to the entire student body.

One of the most important service of WKGT-TV is the recording and storage of events which are of historical importance to the Gordon community.

Students also take courses in Television Production for academic credit and receive valuable training and experience in preparation for their careers. Former Gordon students are employed by several of the major television stations in Chicago. Students from Gordon have won prizes this year and last for programs they produced which were entered in area-wide competition.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society has a two-fold function. Membership is granted in recognition of a student's academic achievement and also his ability as a leader. Along with the honor of membership comes the responsibility of service to the community. To be eligible for membership a student must have at least a B average and participate in activities both in and out of school. He must be nominated by at least three teachers and be interviewed by a committee of faculty and N.H.S. officers. If the committee decides that the student is worthy of the honor and capable of service he is sworn in at the annual induction ceremony.

As a member of the National Honor Society the student strives to improve himself in four general areas: scholarship, character, service, and leadership. He is required to maintain his own academic excellence while he also assists others in academic difficulty through the N.H.S. tutoring program. The tutor meets with the student during free periods and helps him to improve in a specified academic area.

An N.H.S. member also is expected to be an example of good character to his fellow students. He is expected to assume a role of leadership. The N.H.S.'s greatest leadership is exercised in organizing and sponsoring service activities.

The National Honor Society sponsored a blood drive the success of which insures blood replacement for the entire Gordon community for an entire year. They also took a leadership role in the "Shamrocks Against Dystrophy" Campaign. Members also serve as ushers at many school social functions and as waiters at the annual Resurrection Awards Banquet.

At the N.H.S. Induction Frank Williams receives membership certificate and pin from Fr. Mitrenga.

Tom Arends, President of the National Honor Society, addresses the assembly of students and parents who gathered for the induction.

Vice-President Bob Dynek pins the membership emblem on Marty Biernat's lapel.

Brother Bill Hallas reads from the scriptures at the opening of the induction ceremony.

N.H.S. JUNIOR MEMBERS

SERVICE
CHARACTER

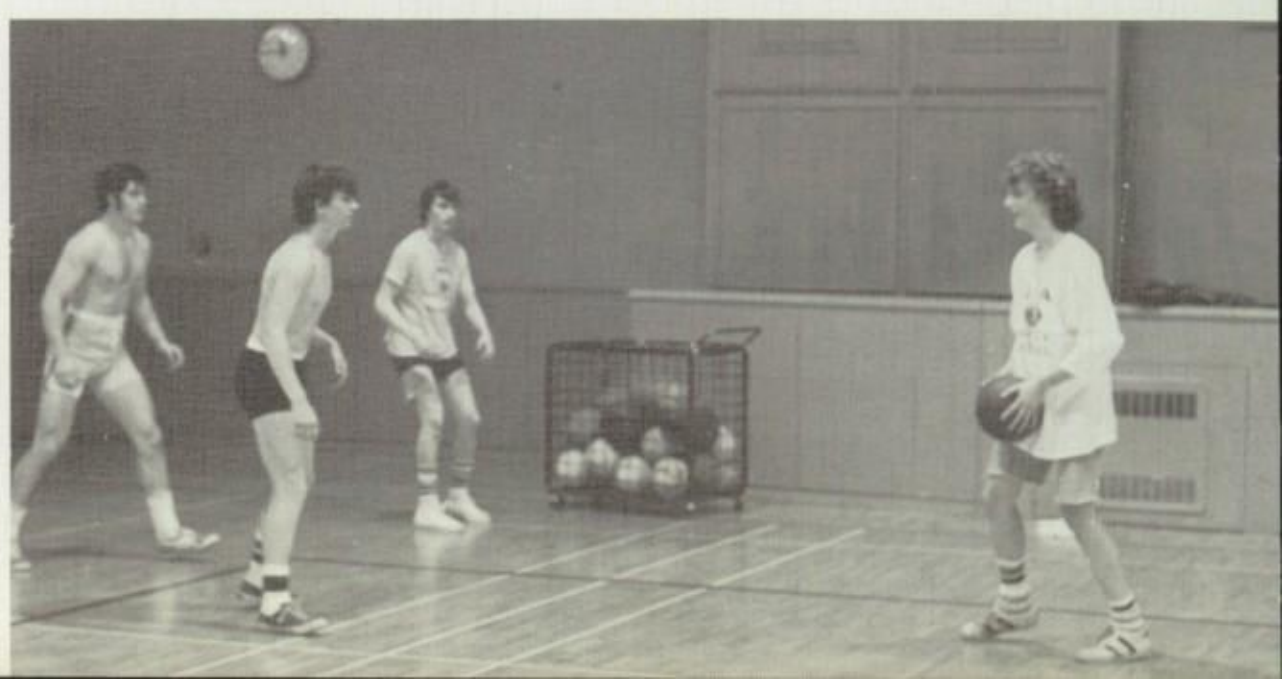
Membership in the National Honor Society is limited to juniors and seniors who qualify and pass the judgment of the interview board. Fr. Mitrenga, the Principal and the moderator of the N.H.S., thought that there should be an organization for freshmen and sophomores who met the other requirements of the N.HS. so that they could prepare themselves for active membership.

Accordingly, last year the National Honor Society Auxiliary was formed. It is an organization composed of freshmen and sophomores who demonstrate the qualities of leadership, character, service, and scholarship which are required of N.H.S. members. In the Auxiliary they are able to participate in the activities of the parent organization and develop within themselves the Society's virtues.

This year Auxiliary members participated in some of the N.H.S.'s fund-raising activities and they also sold newspapers in the lobby of the cafeteria in the morning as their own fund-raising activity.

Membership in the N.H.S.A. is obtained by having the required grade point average, making application, and passing an interview. The process is quite similar to that of the N.H.S. itself.

New members of the National Honor Society stand to be sworn-in by Vice-President Bob Dynek.



Bob Holley, Frank Liberatore, Mike Ward and Wayne Duckmann in some action at the N.H.S. Basketball Marathon.

New members Stan Karaskiewicz and Ken Majkowicz are seen filing out of the assembly. They are followed by Fr. Mitrenga and the officers of the N.H.S.

Juniors Willie Thomas and Ron Boehm take a break during the Basketball Marathon. Thomas damaged his ankle early in the event.

Fr. Mitrenga speaks to the new members of the National Honor Society Auxiliary at their induction.

Members of the N.H.S.A. stand to be sworn into the group and prepare themselves for membership in the senior group through service, leadership, and character.
